

Gabriel Fickle & Mary

48.1

Check for sale of land in 1791 or 1792

FORM SF

Idaho Falls, Idaho - 83401

© 1966, by J. R. Gobble, P. O. Box 2442,

HUSBAND Gabriel FICKLE Social Security No. _____
Occupation _____ Church Christ Church, Episcopal
Lived at Huntington Twp York Springs York County - now Adams, PA
Military Service Rev. Pvt in Capt James Thompson's Co. 5th Batt York Co Associators
Born _____ Place _____ Muster Roll ca 16 Nov 1776
Married _____ Place _____ - 17 Mar 1777
Died _____ Place _____
Buried at _____
Father Michael Fickle Mother(nee) Margaret Slaymaker
Other wives _____

WIFE(nee) Mary Occupation _____ Church _____
Born _____ Place _____
Died _____ Place _____
Buried at _____ Social Security No. _____
Father _____ Mother(nee) _____
Other husbands _____

CHILDREN		BIRTH		DEATH		MARRIAGE
sex	In Order of Birth	Date	Place	Date	Place	Date & Place - Spouse & Parents
1	S. S. #
F	Margaret	Bapt. 5 July 1761
2	S. S. #
3	S. S. #
4	S. S. #
5	S. S. #
6	S. S. #
7	S. S. #
8	S. S. #
9	S. S. #
10	S. S. #
	1790 Census	- (York) PA 1 male over 16, 2 males under 16, 5 females
11	S. S. #
12	S. S. #

Gabriel w/Mary & dau Margaret were bapt. 5 July 1761
Christ Church Episcopal ↘

9 Aug 1784 & 27 June 1785 Gabriel was elected
Vestryman - same church - Private Register, Rev. Thomas BARTON

Alloa (Fickle) Anderson lists one of his children as William b ca 1771.
I have no proof.

York Co. Hist. Soc. "The Register of Christ Church Episcopal, York
Springs, PA 1760 - 1883; edited by Henry James YOUNG 1939 (Y-1)

1783 Taxables, Huntington Twp - 10 inhabitants

1787 - Tax list - Warrant to Jacob Deardorff & Gabriel Fickle
200 A adjoining land of James Morehead, W^m Moores.
Claim John Love & James Smith, Esq. in Huntington Twp.
dated 31 Dec. 1787. (York), PA.

1788 - 1789 - Tax List. - Adams Co. Hist. Soc.

1772 - 1789 - " " & " " & " "
Huntington Twp. York Co. PA

Gabriel cannot be found on 1792 tax list.

Christ Church founded 1746 by the Rev. Richard Locke.

GABRIEL FICKLE

The first information found about Gabriel was in the year 1761 on the 5th day of July. It was on this day that he, his wife and his daughter Margaret were baptized in Christ Church Episcopal, Huntington Township, York County, PA. This is now York Springs, Adams County, PA. He is found on the tax lists of Huntington Twp. from 1772 thru 1775.

Then came the war with England and he served as a Pvt. in Capt. ^{James} Thompson's Co., 5th Battalion on the Roll Nov. 1776, York County Associates.

In 1783 Gabriel was again listed on the taxables, Huntington Twp. with a household of ten inhabitants.

In 1784 and in 1785 he was elected Vestryman of Christ Church Episcopal. and is listed on the tax lists of 1788 and 1789.

The census of 1790 lists the household as having one male over sixteen, two males under sixteen and five females.

No record of Gabriel is found in PA after the 1790 census. He no longer appears on the tax rolls of York County. He did however sign the release mentioned in in regard to his fathers estate and recorded 22 Dec. 1792 WR 11 pg 260-261 Frederick Co., MD.

Vestryman and Baptism - Register of the Rev. Thomas Barton.

This Blue Bound Register is in Christ Church, York Springs, PA

GABRIEL FICKLE

- 1761 - 5 July, Gabriel, his wife Mary and dau Margaret were baptized Christ Church Episcopal, York Springs/Petersburg, PA
- 1772 thru 1775 He was on the tax list in Huntington Twp. York/Adams Co.
- 1776 - 1776 In Capt. James Thompson's 5th Battalion, York Co. Associates.
- 1780 - Census of PA State wide Index of PA taxables.
- 1783 - shows 10 inhabitants.
- 1774 - Elected Vestryman of Christ Church Episcopal
- 1775 - same
- 1788 - tax list
- 1789 - tax list
- 1792 - In Dec. he signed a release related to his father's (Michael Fickle) estate.

Copy

HUSBAND Gabriel FICKLE

Social Security No.

Occupation

Church Christ Church, Episcopal

Lived at Huntington Twp York Springs York County - now Adams, PA

Military Service Rev. Pvt in Capt. James Thompson's Co. 5th Batt York Co Associators

Born _____ Place _____

Muster Roll call 6 Nov 1776

Married _____ Place _____

- 17 Mar 1777

Died _____ Place _____

Buried at _____

Father Michael Fickle Mother(nee) Margaret Slaymaker

Other wives _____

WIFE(nee) Mary

Occupation _____

Church York Springs Episcopal

Born _____ Place _____

Died _____ Place _____

Buried at _____ Social Security No. _____

Father _____ Mother(nee) _____

Other husbands _____

CHILDREN		BIRTH		DEATH		MARRIAGE
sex	In Order of Birth	Date	Place	Date	Place	Date & Place - Spouse & Parents
1	S. S. #
F	Margaret	Bapt. 5 July 1761
2	S. S. #
3	S. S. #
4	S. S. #
5	S. S. #
6	S. S. #
7	S. S. #
8	S. S. #
9	S. S. #
10	S. S. #
	1790 Census - (York) PA	1 male over 16,	2 males under 16,	5 females
11	S. S. #
12	S. S. #

check for sale of land in 1791 or 1792

* Use reverse side for sources, references, further data, anecdotes, traditions, photos, etc.

Compiler's line

Compiler _____ Street _____

City _____ State _____ Date _____ Revised _____

FORM SF

Idaho Falls, Idaho - 83401

© 1965 by J. R. Gobbie, P. O. Box 2442,

Gabriel w/Mary & dau Margaret were bapt. 5 July 1761
Christ Church Episcopal ↘

9 Aug 1784 & 27 June 1785 Gabriel was elected
Vestryman - same church - Private Register, Rev. Thomas BARTON

Alloa (Fickle) Anderson lists one of his children as William b ca 1771.
I have no proof.

York Co. Hist. Soc. "The Register of Christ Church Episcopal, York
Springs, PA 1760 - 1883; edited by Henry James YOUNG 1939 (Y-1)

1783 Taxables, Huntington Twp - 10 inhabitants

1787 - Tax list - Warrant to Jacob Deardorff & Gabriel Fickle

200 A adjoining land of James Morehead, W^m Moores.

Claim John Love & James Smith, Esq. in Huntington Twp.
dated 31 Dec. 1787. (York), PA.

1788 - 1789 - Tax List. - Adams Co. Hist. Soc.

1772 - 1789 - " " " "
Huntington Twp. York Co. PA

Gabriel cannot be found on 1792 tax list.

Christ Church founded 1746 by the Rev. Richard Locke.

Copy

1985

Area Briefs

Episcopalian pilgrimage Sept. 15

YORK SPRINGS — The annual pilgrimage of local Episcopalians to Christ Church, York Springs, will be held Sept. 15.

A service of sung Evensong will be held at 4 p.m.; the preacher will be the Rev. Peter Mackey of St. Andrew's, York.

Music, under the direction of Mrs. Josephine Bailey Freund, will be provided by the choir of St. John's, Carlisle.

Arrangements will be in charge of Prince of Peace, Gettysburg.

Also participating will be the congregations of St. John's, York, and All Saints, Hanover.

The congregation of Christ Church began its existence in 1748. The first minister was sent from England by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, and was vicar of the work in that community and also held services in York and Carlisle.

The present building at York Springs dates to 1834.

I attended this service, 1985.

*Joana Bayles
Gabriel is the brother of my ancestor Benjamin Finkle.*

York Springs Church Marks 200th Year Sunday

Copy
R0FF

Christ Episcopal Church, York Springs, mother church of the Episcopalian denomination in the Cumberland Valley and probably in Central Pennsylvania, will mark its 200th anniversary Sunday.

Clergymen and members of the daughter churches will participate in the service arranged by the Archdeacon of the Diocese, the Rev. Robert T. McCutchen, for 4 p. m.

Back in 1748, when York Springs was known as Huntingdon, a small colony of English farmers settled there wrote the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, London, England, to send a clergyman. They added they not only had a tract of land where they had constructed a crude church, but also had a subscription list of 39 worshippers.

The reply from London was to send a minister, the Rev. George Craig, who was responsible not only for the "Huntingdon" charge, where he was to live, but to serve St. John's Episcopal Church, York, "one Sunday in six," and St. John's, Carlisle, "two Sundays in six." As a result the two large parishes in York and Carlisle have been the outgrowth, the Rev. Mr. McCutchen explained.

Log Structure

The original church, a log structure, was built on a 20 by 30 foot plot in the heart of a small cemetery. The burial ground, containing graves of 150 persons of pre-Revolutionary days, has not been maintained too well through the years because of lack of funds.

In 1834 the church was moved to its present site, about two miles from the first, and a brick structure erected. The pews, which seat 250 persons, are the original ones, with their individual doors, but the remainder of the interior has been redecorated. The side-walls have been painted buff, and the altar renovated, with new altar hangings.

With the exception of one service a year, usually in July or August, but held off until Sunday this year to commemorate the 200th celebration, the church is open only for an occasional baptism or confirmation. The Rev. Mr. McCutchen is chaplain at the Mont Alto State Sanitarium and the Pennsylvania State Forestry School, as well as vicar at Christ Episcopal.

He explained that the last Episcopalian family had moved from York Springs about seven years ago.

Bishop to Speak

Rev. J. Thomas Heistand, Bishop of the Diocese, will preach the sermon, and the Rev. Canon Paul F. Atkins, St. John's, York, and the Rev. Earl M. Honaman, St. John's, Carlisle, will assist the Rev. Mr. McCutchen.

Worshippers are expected from as far as Philadelphia, Lancaster, and other parts of Pennsylvania.

RECTOR
VEN. ROBERT T. McCUTCHEN
SOUTH MOUNTAIN, PA.

YORK SPRINGS CHURCH 200 YEARS OLD—Christ Episcopal Church, York Springs, will mark its 200th anniversary Sunday with a service at 4 p. m., in which the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Heistand, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Harrisburg, will participate. The pictures show, from top to bottom, the present church building, the original log structure, set in a cemetery, the plaque near the door which describes the founding, and a rear and side view of the present church.

60p1
At a meeting of the Congregation of Huntington after due notice given. Present The Rev. Mr. John Campbell Pastor.

August 9th 1784

Mr. John Collins, and Mr. William Godfrey were elected Church Wardens for the ensuing Year.

Archibald McGraw, Leonard Hatton, John Maxwell, James Maxwell, Stephen Toalk, Thomas Robison, John McIlpree, Robert Delap, Thomas Abbot, Alexander McIlpree, James McTaggart jun^r, Edward Marsden, Gabriel Tuckle, John Watson, Adam Simmon, Christy, were

At a Meeting of the Vestry holden on Monday the 1st Day of October 1784 in the Church at Huntington, commonly called Thrift's Church, agreeably to public Notice given, & Settlement as made between William Godfrey & John Collins on the one part, Wardens of the said Church, & the Congregation on the other part, when it appeared that a Balance is due from the said Wardens to the Incumbent of fifty one Pounds two Shillings Nine Pence. ~ Ordered at the same Time, with the consent of the Incumbent, that the above Sum of fifty one Pounds two Shillings & nine Pence be applied towards the Building of a Barn on the Hebe belonging to the said Church. ~ Archibald McIlpree, Thomas Robison, & Leonard Hatton, were directed to contract for & superintend the building of the said Barn.

Attest. John Campbell. Minister

Children Baptized in the Year 1761

Jan'y 13th John ~~Bapt~~ Son to John & Mary Pross.
 15th Sarah Daughter to John and Mary Pross.
 15th James Son to John and Mary Pross.
 15th Elizabeth Daughter to John & Mary Pross.
 15th George Son to John and Mary Pross.
 15th Susannah Daughter to Thomas.
 15th John Son to Rich: and Egleston.
 May 3rd Tho: Son to Tho: & Sarah Nash.
 3rd Nicholas Son to Nicholas and Hannah Bishop.
 3rd Catherine Daughter to Watson.
 July 5th Gabriel Fickle & Mary Fickle his Wife Adair.

July 5th Margaret Daughter to Gabriel & Mary Fickle.
 5th Hannah Daughter to Sharp.
 26th Mary Daughter to Fizzy & Husband.
 27th Mary Daughter to Fick: and Jane Sadler.
 August 16th Ann Daughter to John and Mary Collins Jun.
 16th Sarah Daughter to John and Mary Collins Jun.
 16th Martha Daughter to Wm and Margaret M^{rs} Gp.
 Nov: 8th Eleanor Daughter to John and Jane Matton.
 8th Elizabeth Daughter to John and Hodge.
 Dec: 6th Samuel Son to Wm and Linsay.

Children Baptized in the Year 1762

1762
 Feb'y 7th Esther Daughter to Arch: & Martha M^{rs} Gray.
 8th Esther Daughter to Cha: Gordon.
 14th John Son to Charleton & Mary Atkinson.
 14th Mary Daughter to Tho: & Rosannah Collins.
 24th John Son to Ja: and Eliz: Morehead.
 March 7th John Son to Robt: & Mary Scot.
 24th Martha Daughter to John & Eliz: Wackeren.
 April 12th Rebecca Daughter to Samson & Rebecca Archer.
 16th John Hacklet bound to Tho: Wackeren.
 May 9th Mary Daughter to Joseph & Sarah Tull.
 Ja: Son to Laughlin & Mary M^{rs} Li Yea.
 Eliz: Daughter to Robt: & Eliz: Fletcher.
 W: Rich: Son to Rich: and Jane Chesnut.
 June 12th Isaac Son to Wm and Mary Sadler.
 Oct: 2th Mary Daughter to Wm and Mary Corcor.
 11th Eliz: Daughter to Wm & Eleanor Nash.

HUSBAND Gabriel FICKLE Index
 Social Security No. _____
 Occupation _____ Church Christ Church, Episcopal
 Lived at Huntington Twp York Springs York County - now Adams, PA
 Military Service Rev. Pvt. in Capt. James Thompson's Co. 5th Batt York Co Associators
 Born _____ Place _____ Muster Roll ca 16 Nov 1776
 Married _____ Place _____ - 17 Mar 1777
 Died _____ Place _____
 Buried at _____
 Father Michael Fickle Mother(nee) Margaret Slaymaker
 Other wives _____

WIFE(nee) Mary Occupation _____ Church _____
 Born _____ Place _____
 Died _____ Place _____
 Buried at _____ Social Security No. _____
 Father _____ Mother(nee) _____
 Other husbands _____

CHILDREN		BIRTH		DEATH		MARRIAGE
sex	In Order of Birth	Date	Place	Date	Place	Date & Place - Spouse & Parents
1	S.S. #
F	Margaret	Bapt. 5 July 1761
2	S.S. #
3	S.S. #
4	S.S. #
5	S.S. #
6	S.S. #
7	S.S. #
8	S.S. #
9	S.S. #
10	S.S. #
1790 Census - (York) PA 1 male over 16, 2 males under 16, 5 females
11	S.S. #
12	S.S. #

Gabriel w/Mary & dau Margaret were bapt. 5 July 1761
Christ Church Episcopal ↘

9 Aug 1784 & 27 June 1785 Gabriel was elected
Vestryman - same church - Private Register, Rev. Thomas BARTON

Alloa (Fickle) Anderson lists one of his children as William b ca 1771.
I have no proof.

York Co. Hist. Soc. "The Register of Christ Church Episcopal, York
Springs, PA 1760 - 1883; edited by Henry James YOUNG 1939 (Y-1)

1783 Taxables, Huntington Twp - 10 inhabitants

1787 - Tax list - Warrant to Jacob Deardorff & Gabriel Fickle
200 A adjoining land of James Morehead, W^m Moores.
Claim John Love & James Smith, Esq. in Huntington Twp.
dated 31 Dec. 1787. (York), PA.

1788 - 1789 - Tax List - Adams Co. Hist. Soc.

1772 - 1789 - " " & " " & " "
Huntington Twp. York Co. PA ..

Gabriel cannot be found on 1792 tax list.

Christ Church founded 1746 by the Rev. Richard bocke.

- Gabriel Fickle (Michael High (Stamper) Fickle)
- July 1761 Baptized - Christ Episcopal Church
Huntington Twp York PA
- 1762 Tax list
- 1772 - 1775 tax list Huntington Twp
- 1776 Pat. Capt. Thompsons 5th Battalion
(York) Associates
- 1783 - tax list 10 inhabitants 50 A land
3 cattle 2 horses 7 sheep 1 house
2 outhouses
- 1784 ~~1844~~ - elected Vestryman
- 1785 ~~18~~ " "
- 1788 - tax list
- 1789 - " "
- 1790 one male over 16 2 males under 5 females
- 1792 - he signed a release - his fathers estate -

Mar 1, Margaret -
2,
3
4
5
6

FAMILY
GROUP
RECORD

ENTER ALL DATA IN THIS ORDER:
DATES: 14 Apr 1794

NAMES: WATSON, John Henry
PLACES: Sharon, Windsor, Vt

To indicate that a child is an ancestor of the family representative, place an "X" behind the number pertaining to that child.

HUSBAND		1784 - 1794		FICKLE		WYTHE (WATSON) VA		1810 Census Roll 71
Born	Place	Chr.	Place	Marr.	Place	Died	Place	Bur.	Place
WIFE		1 - 1794 - 1800
Born	Place	Chr.	Place	Died	Place	Bur.	Place	HUSBAND'S FATHER MOTHER
WIFE		1 - 1794 - 1800
WIFE'S FATHER		WIFE'S MOTHER
WIFE'S OTHER HUSBANDS
SEX M F	CHILDREN		WHEN BORN		WHERE BORN		DATE OF FIRST MARRIAGE TO WHOM		DAY WHEN DIED
	List each child (whether living or dead) in order of birth	Surname	DAY MONTH YEAR	TOWN	COUNTY	STATE OR COUNTRY
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
SOURCES OF INFORMATION				OTHER MARRIAGES

FAMILY
GROUP
RECORD

ENTER ALL DATA IN THIS ORDER:
DATES: 14 Apr 1794

NAMES: WATSON, John Henry
PLACES: Sharon, Windsor, Vt

To indicate that a child is an ancestor of the family representative, place an "X" behind the number pertaining to that child.

HUSBAND Gabriel FICKLE Age 26-45 (Mythe) VA 1820 Census. born between 1794-1794		Place
Chr.		Place
Marr.		Place
Died		Place
Bur.		Place
HUSBAND'S FATHER		HUSBAND'S MOTHER
HUSBAND'S OTHER WIVES
WIFE
Born	between 1775-1794	Place
Chr.		Place
Died		Place
Bur.		Place
WIFE'S FATHER		WIFE'S MOTHER
WIFE'S OTHER HUSBANDS
SEX M F	CHILDREN List each child (whether living or dead) in order of birth Given Names Surname	WHEN BORN DAY MONTH YEAR	WHERE BORN TOWN COUNTY STATE OR COUNTRY	DATE OF FIRST MARRIAGE TO WHOM	WHEN DIED DAY MONTH YEAR
1		between 1804-1810
2		1810-1820
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
SOURCES OF INFORMATION		OTHER MARRIAGES

Gabriel Fickle

The first information found about Gabriel was in about the year 1761. It was on the 5th day of July 1761 that his daughter Margaret along with he and his wife Mary were baptized in Christ Church, Episcopal, ^{what is now} York Springs, Huntington Twp. York Co. PA. He is found on the tax lists of Huntington Twp. from 1772 thro 1775.

Came the Revolutionary War and he served as a Pvt. in Capt. Thompson's Co. 5th Battalion. York Co. Associates Muster Roll - Nov. 1776.

In 1783 He was again listed on the taxables, Huntington Twp. with a household of ten inhabitants.

In 1784 and in 1785 he was elected Vestryman of Christ Church. He is listed on the tax lists of 1788 & 1789.

The Census of 1790 lists the household as having one male over sixteen and two males under sixteen and five females.

No record of Gabriel is found in PA after the 1790 Census. He no longer appears on the tax rolls of York County.

Gabriel also signed the release mentioned in Land Record Vol 11 Frederick Co. Release of Administrators, Recorded 22 Dec 1792 Re: Michael Fickle's Estate

1790 Censuses

2 males under 16

M

M

F

F

F

F

5 females Wife & 4 ch.

1790 Censuses 1 male over 16 2 males under 16
& 5 females. (York) PA.

Private Register of the Rev. Thomas Barton (This Blue Bound register is in Christ Episcopal Church, York Springs PA.

Adams Co. Church & Records of the 18th Century Genealogical Westminster PA.

BAPTISMAL RECORDS OF THE UPPER BERMUDEAN "GROUND OAK" CHURCH

Johannes b. 1800, Witnesses: Philip Schlosser and Margaretha
 Jacob Peter of Peter Spengler and Barbara, b. June 1800, bapt. September 3, Witnesses: Conrad Cronester and Catharina
 Heinrich of Henrich Hartmann and Elisabeth, b. March 8, 1800, bapt. September
 18, Witnesses: Philip Grub
 Salome of Henrich Brem and Elisabeth, b. June 17, 1801 (sic), bapt.
 September 18, Witnesses: Catharina Herzl
 Anna Maria of Conrad Schmidt and wife, b. November 17, 1800, bapt. September
 13, 1801, Witnesses: Anna Maria Schwartz

THE REGISTER OF CHRIST'S CHURCH (EPISCOPAL) YORK SPRINGS, PENNSYLVANIA
 1760 - 1800

Edited by HENRY JAMES YOUNG (1939)

John of Richd. and Jane Chesnut, bapt. May 25, 1760
 Mary of Richd. and Jane Chesnut, bapt. May 25, 1760
 Jane of John and Margret Mitchell, bapt. May 25, 1760
 Joseph of James Elder, bapt. June 8, 1760
 Hannah of Dennis Briens, bapt. June 8, 1760
 John of ----- McLeDAY, bapt. June 8, 1760
 Mary of Wm. and Mary Young, bapt. June 15, 1760
 Mary of James and Eliz: Morehead, bapt. June 15, 1760
 Wm. of Robt. and Sarah McGill, bapt. June 15, 1760
 Edward of Lewis and Mary Hutton, bapt. August 22, 1760
 Thomas of Richd. Eygleston, bapt. September 14, 1760
 Eliz: of Wm. and Sarah Amburn, bapt. October 26, 1760
 Daniel of Chas. Gordon, bapt. October 26, 1760
 John of John and Mary Ross, bapt. January 15, 1761
 Sarah of John and Mary Ross, bapt. January 15, 1761
 James of John and Mary Ross, bapt. January 15, 1761
 Elisabeth of John and Mary Ross, bapt. January 15, 1761
 George of John and Mary Ross, bapt. January 1761
 Susanna of ----- Thomas, bapt. January 15, 1761
 John of Richd. Eygleston, bapt. January 15, 1761
 Thos. of Thos. and Sarah Nash, bapt. May 3, 1761
 Nicholas of Nicholas and Hannah Bishop, bapt. May 3, 1761
 Catherine of ----- Watson, bapt. May 3, 1761
 Gabriel Fickle and Mary his wife, adults, bapt. July 5, 1761
 Margret of Gabriel and Mary Fickle, July 5, 1761
 Hannah of ----- Sharp, bapt. July 5, 1761
 Mary of Kizey Husbands, bapt. July 26, 1761
 Mary of Richd. Sadler Junr. and Jane, bapt. July 27, 1761
 Ann of John Collins Junr. and Mary, bapt. August 16, 1761
 Sarah of John Collins Junr. and Mary, bapt. August 16, 1761
 Martha of Wm. and Margret McGrew, bapt. August 16, 1761
 Eleanor of John and Jane Hutton, bapt. November 1, 1761
 Elizabeth of John Hodge, bapt. November 8, 1761
 Samuel of Wm. Linsey, bapt. December 6, 1761
 Esther of Arch: and Martha McGrew, bapt. February 7, 1762
 Esther of Chas. Gordon, bapt. February 8, 1762
 John of Charleton and Mary Atkinson, bapt. February 14, 1762
 Mary of Thos. and Rosannah Collins, bapt. February 14, 1762

THE REGISTER OF CHRIST'S CHURCH (EPISCOPAL) YORK SPRINGS

John of Jas. and Elez: Morehead, bapt. February 24, 1762
 John of Robt. and Mary Scott, bapt. March 7, 1762
 Martha of John and Elez: Bracken, bapt. March 21, 1762
 Rebecca of Samson and Rebecca Archer, bapt. April 12, 1762
 John Hackett (bound to Thos. Bracken), bapt. April 16, 1762
 Mary of Joseph and Sarah Tull, bapt. May 9, 1762
 Jas. of Laughlin and Mary McCleYea, bapt. May 9, 1762
 Elez: of Robt. and Elez: Fletcher, bapt. May 9, 1762
 Richd. of Richd. and Jane Chesnut, bapt. May 11, 1762
 Isaac of Wm. and Mary Sadler, bapt. June 12, 1762
 Mary of Wm. and Mary Proctor, bapt. October 24, 1762
 Elez of Edwd. and Eleanor Nash, bapt. October 24, 1762
 Jane of Chas. and Issabel McLannet, bapt. November 14, 1762
 Margret of Robt. and Sarah McGill, bapt. November 14, 1762
 Mary of John and Mary Moss, bapt. November 24, 1762
 Hannah of James of Hannah Crouch, bapt. November 24, 1762
 John of Henry and Sarah Giles, bapt. May 1, 1763
 John of Richard and Jane Sadler, September 25, 1763
 Isabella of Wm. and Margaret McGrew, bapt. October 4, 1763
 Jane of Wm. and Mary Sadler, bapt. October 30, 1763
 Samuel of Henry and Sarah Thorp, bapt. October 30, 1763

The Register has been very irregularly kept since the year 1763 (Note in the hand of The Reverend John Campbell, who made the entries that immediately follow)

John of John Collins, b. July 1, 1781, bapt. June 20, 1784
 Allen of Allen and Rachel Robinet, b. November 21, 1787, bapt. March 27, 1788
 James of Allen and Rachel Robinet, b. April 28, 1789, bapt. May 27, 1789
 Thomas of Allen and Rachel Robinet, b. March 23, 1791, bapt. May 4, 1791
 Ann of Allen and Rachel Robinet, b. February 23, 1793, bapt. April 14, 1793
 Mary of Allen and Rachel Robinet, b. January 14, 1795, bapt. July 20, 1795
 Rachel of Allen and Rachel Robinet, b. March 27, 1798, bapt. April 29, 1798
 Rebecca Richardson of Edward Morehead (b. in Huntington Township, June 28, 1773 and Sarah (b. April 18, 1777), b. January 5, 1797; bapt. [not date]
 Mary Taylor of Edward Morehead and Sarah [See above]; b. September 11, 1799, bapt. [no date given]

(No Entries appear in this Register from 1798 to 1823 -- C. Williams)

1850 United States Federal Census record for Gabriel Fickle

SCHEDULE I. — Free Inhabitants in the City Eighth District in the County of Wythe State of Virginia enumerated by me, on the fourth day of October 1850. Robert G. Galtman Ass't Marshal.

Dwellings—house number or order of visitation.	Families numbered in order of visitation.	The Name of every Person whose usual place of abode on the first day of June, 1850, was in this family.	Description.			Profession, Occupation, or Trade of each Male Person over 15 years of age.	Value of Real Estate owned.	Place of Birth. Naming the State, Territory, or Country.	Married within the year.	Attended school within the year.	Whether deaf and dumb, blind, insane, idiotic, pauper, or convict.
			Age.	Sex.	White, black, or color.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
1		David W. Parling	14	M				70
2		Ella	12	F						1
3		Stephen	14	M
4		Peter	8	M						1
5		James	6	M
6		Barbara	11	F
7		James	17	M
8	1868	Abigail Hancock	64	M		Farmer
9		James	12	M						1
10		Demasius	18	M		Labourer
11		Mary	24	F
12		Ella	18	F
13		John	13	M						1
14		William	11	M						1
15		Phasant	9	M
16		Henry	7	M
17		Alexander	5	M
18	1869	Robert, Robt. L.	54	M		Industrious				1
19		Mary	61	F						1
20		Elizabeth	24	F						1
21		Andrew	22	M		Labourer
22		Peter	20	M
23		James	15	M
24	1870	William Kib	31	M		Farmer	1000
25		Elizabeth	31	F
26	1871	Thomas Kinn	70	M		Farmer
27		Dee Begle	24	M		Do	2000
28		Polly	26	F
29		William	5	M
30		Barthula	3	F
31		Agg	1	M
32	1872	Rebecca Findley	30	F			600
33		Sachar	11	M
34		John	8	M
35		Thomas	6	M
36		William Kellard	29	M		Labourer
37		Mary Findley	4	F
38		James Findley	2	M
39	1873	Gabriel Fickle	74	M		none
40		Mary	52	F
41		Polly	13	F
42	1874	James Bruce	48	M		Farmer	2000

Record Index

Name: Gabriel Fickle

Age: 74

Birth Year: abt 1776

Birthplace: Virginia

Home in 1850: District 68, Wythe, Virginia

Gender: Male

Family Number: 1573

Source Information

Record URL: <http://search.ancestry.com/cgi-bin/sse.dll?h=15654554&db=1850usfedcenancestry&indiv=try>

Source Citation: Year: 1850; Census Place: District 68, Wythe, Virginia; Roll: M432_982; Page: 336B; Image: 269.

Source Information:

Ancestry.com. 1850 United States Federal Census [database online]. Provo, UT, USA: Ancestry.com Operations, Inc., 2009. Images reproduced by FamilySearch.

Original data: Seventh Census of the United States, 1850; (National Archives Microfilm Publication M432, 1009 rolls); Records of the Bureau of the Census, Record Group 29; National Archives, Washington, D.C.

1840 United States Federal Census

Name:	Gabriel Fickle	1850
Home in 1840 (City, County, State):	Wythe, Virginia	Wythe VA
Free White Persons - Males - 60 thru 69:	1 1771 - 1780	1850 - 76 - Gabriel
Free White Persons - Females - 40 thru 49:	1 1791 - 1800	1850 - 50 - Nancy
No. White Persons over 20 Who Cannot Read and Write:	1
Free White Persons - 20 thru 49:	1
Total Free White Persons:	2
Total All Persons - Free White, Free Colored, Slaves:	2

Source Citation: Year: 1840; Census Place: , Wythe, Virginia; Roll: 579; Page: 118; Image: 241; Family History Library Film: 0029693.

Source Information:

Ancestry.com. 1840 United States Federal Census [database on-line]. Provo, UT, USA: Ancestry.com Operations, Inc., 2010.
Images reproduced by FamilySearch.

Original data: Sixth Census of the United States, 1840. (NARA microfilm publication M704, 580 rolls). Records of the Bureau of the Census, Record Group 29. National Archives, Washington, D.C.

Description:

This database details those persons enumerated in the 1840 United States Federal Census, the Sixth Census of the United States. In addition, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to the actual images of the 1840 Federal Census. Enumerators of the 1840 census were asked to include the following categories in the census: name of head of household, number of free white males and females, number of other free persons, names of slave owners and number of slaves, number of foreigners, and town or district and county of residence.

© 2012, The Generations Network, Inc.

Home	Family Trees ▾	Search ▾	DNA ▾	Collaborate ▾	Learning Center ▾	Publish	Show
----------------------	--------------------------------	--------------------------	-----------------------	-------------------------------	-----------------------------------	-------------------------	----------------------

Compare With Your Tree

Children (2)

Margret Fickle B: 1761
Joseph G. Fickle B: 1780

Gabriel Fickle

B: ABT 1736 in Strasburg Tp., Lancaster Co., PA
D:

Mary Moore B: ABT 1738

Page Tools

Save record to someone in my tree

Save record to my shoebox

Add Alternate Information

Report Issue

View printer-friendly

Share this record

Facebook

Google+

Email

Comments

There are no comments for this record

Leave a comment

Make a Connection

Find others who are researching your ancestors in Public Member Trees:

Find others researching Gabriel Fickle

1790 United States Federal Census about Gabriel Fickle

Name: Gabriel Fickle
[Gabriel Fishle]

Home in 1790 (City, County, State): Mixed Township, York, Pennsylvania

Free White Persons - 2
Males - Under 16:

Free White Persons - 2
Males - 16 and over:

Free White Persons - 5
Females:

Number of Household 9
Members:

View original

View blank

Save This Record

Attach this record to a person in your tree as a source record, or save evaluation.

Save

Source Citation: Year: 1790; Census Place: Mixed Township, York, Pennsylvania; Series: M637; Roll: 9; Page: 421; Image: 227; Family His Film: 0568149.

Source Information:

Ancestry.com. 1790 United States Federal Census [database online]. Provo, UT, USA: Ancestry.com Operations, Inc., Images reproduced by FamilySearch.

Original data: First Census of the United States, 1790 (NARA microfilm p M637, 12 rolls). Records of the Bureau of the Census, Record Group 29. Archives, Washington, D.C.

Land Entry Book
Monongalia Co, Va

Handy for

MOSES WILLIAMS, ROBERT

WILLIAMS & DAVID WILLIAMS.

Moses Williams Robert Wright & David Williams 290 acres on part of a warrant of 1000 acres No. 1717 dated 20th of October 1781 adjoining Richard Morris & Samuel Price. (This entry withdrawn and reentered January 4th 1796).

RICHARD MERRIFIELD

TO

JOHN WILLIAMS. Sir The warrant I left with you came by order of William Hill one thousand acres he had in the office he let John Cory have three hundred acres the other seven remained which I came to your office with and left the order in your hands and you told me to call on you for it. Therefore please let Moses Williams have the whole seven hundred acres and the order shall be your resp't for the same and oblige yours to serve. Richard Merrifield December 1st 1796. To Gold Samuel Hanway.

WILLIAM MCKEY, TO JAMES COLLINS.

I assign fifty acres of part of a premium warrant No. 1501 dated the 28th of August 1781 to James Collins. Dec'r 29th 1796. Wm. McKee.

JAMES COLLINS.

James Collins the above assigned warrant James Collins enters adjoining lands of said Collins Parish Davis & Gratton White. On Robinsons run.

JACOB MOOSE (NUSE)

Jacob Moose assee of Frances Peyton enters 388 acres on part of a Land Office Treasury Warr't of 788 acres No. 9640 dated 7th day of December 1781 adjoining said Moose Sam'l Hanway Anthony Garre and Henry Crull & Godfrey Dower. (25th June 1796 this entry is withdrawn by John Davis by order of Jacob Moose).

TO

COVERDILL COLE. JANUARY 24 1796. Monongalia County. Sir Please to let Coverdill Cole have privilage to lift the amount of this within warrant and you will oblige your friend to serve. Harrow.

COVERDILL COLE.

Coverdill Cole enters 100 acres of land on part of a Land Office Treasury Warr't of 1000 No. 16855 dated 12 of June 1783 adjoining the said Coverdill Cole & Watkins on the waters of Sootts Mill run. (Reby 27th 1797 80 acres of the above hntre withdrawn and reentered).

JOHN DAVIS & JOSEPH JINKINS. (JINKINS)

John Davis & Joseph Jinkins enters 20 acres of land on part of a warrant assee of Wm. Young of 8202 acres No. 17471 dated 27th day of June 1783 adjoining lands formerly belonging to Wm. Arson Wright Ruby and John Morland for quantity (withdrawn).

RAUQUIN MOOREY (MOOREY) (MOOREY) (MOOREY)

Raquer Moorey enters 30 acres of land on part of a Land Office Exchange Warr't of 1000 acres No. 74 dated the 24 day of October 1781 adjoining Robert Hill, Wm. Joseph & Wm. Arsons place as was. (Withdrawn).

JAMES ROBISON.

James Robison assee of Thomas Evans assee of John Overton enters 127 acres of land on part of a Warr't of 500 acres No. 273 dated 12 October 1783 adjoining James Denny Ruby to the westward for quantity on the waters of Buttlis Creek. (45 acres withdrawn. 3 Feb. 1797).

JOHN DAVIS & AMOS SMITH.

John Davis & Amos Smith assee of Wm. Young enters 20 acres of land on part of a Land Office Warr't of 820 acres No. 17471 dated 27th day of June 1783 adjoining Michael Courtney George Greenwood and Gratton White.

RAUQUIN MOOREY (MOOREY) (MOOREY) (MOOREY)

Raquer Moorey James Robison enters 70 acres on part of an Exchange Warr't of 1000 acres No. 74 dated 24 day of October, 1781 adjoining James Tibbs Jacob Jacobs Wm. No. Cleary and others including the run from his Saw Mill. (Withdrawn).

JAMES ROBISON & JOHN DAVIS.

James Robison & John Davis assee of William Young enters 200 acres on part of a Warr't of 820-1/2 acres No. 17471 dated 27th day of June 1783 adjoining Morgan Morgan Henry Barnes to include the vacancy on the west side of Buttlis Creek.

THOMAS MOORE

TO

GABRIEL PICKLE. Sandy Creek Dec'r 30th day 1796 Sir after my compliments to you I desire the favour of you to locate my Brother Davids Land warrant joining my East line and the State line and James Clarks line and Samuel Darleys and adjoining my own again & you will be kind enough to let Mr. Gabriel Pickle have as much of that 50 acres of my own warrant that was not filled up as he wants and all if he wants it. Thomas Moore.

GABRIEL PICKLE.

Gabriel Pickle assee of Thomas Moore enters 50 acres of land on part of a premium warrant of 1000 acres No. 1720 dated 28th October 1781 adjoining Gabriel Pickle formerly belonging to Thomas Moore David More on the South and Moses Johnson on the North.

CENSUS HISTORY OF:

Gabriel Fickle

Date of birth:

Date of death:

IN HOUSEHOLD OF: 2nd generation (Encircle age group in which this person is listed)	Males		Females	Males						Females
	To 16	16 & up		0-10	10-16	16-18	18-28	28-45	45 & up	0-10	10-16	16-26	26-45	45 & up
1790 - Co. poss 2 sons 4 daes. St.	2	1	5
Name:
1800 - Co. St.
Name:
1810 - Co. Monongalia St. VA
Name:
1820 - Co. Wythe St. VA
Name: 200 A-Land.

IN HOUSEHOLD OF: (Encircle age group in which this person is listed)	Males											Females											Aliens
	0-5	5-10	10-15	15-20	20-30	30-40	40-50	50-60	60-70	70-80	80-90	90-100	100 & up	0-5	5-10	10-15	15-20	20-30	30-40	40-50	50-60	60-70		70-80	80-90	90-100
1830 - Co. St.
Name:
1840 - Co. St.
Name:

Dwelling #	Family #	Name of each person whose place of abode on June 1 was in this family	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of real estate	Value of personal estate	Place of birth	Married this yr.	School this yr.	Can't read/write	Deaf, blind, insane, etc.
------------	----------	---	-----	-----	-------	------------	----------------------	--------------------------	----------------	------------------	-----------------	------------------	---------------------------

1850 - County:

State:

Post office:

1860 - County:

State:

Post office:

York Springs Church Marks 200th Year Sunday

Christ Episcopal Church, York Springs, mother church of the Episcopalian denomination in the Cumberland Valley and probably in Central Pennsylvania, will mark its 200th anniversary Sunday.

Clergymen and members of the daughter churches will participate in the service arranged by the Archdeacon of the Diocese, the Rev. Robert T. McCutchen, for 4 p. m.

Back in 1748, when York Springs was known as Huntingdon, a small colony of English farmers settled there wrote the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, London, England, to send a clergyman. They added they not only had a tract of land where they had constructed a crude church, but also had a subscription list of 39 worshippers.

The reply from London was to send a minister, the Rev. George Craig, who was responsible not only for the "Huntingdon" charge, where he was to live, but to serve St. John's Episcopal Church, York, "one Sunday in six," and St. John's, Carlisle, "two Sundays in six." As a result the two large parishes in York and Carlisle have been the outgrowth, the Rev. Mr. McCutchen explained.

Log Structure

The original church, a log structure, was built on a 20 by 30 foot plot in the heart of a small cemetery. The burial ground, containing graves of 150 persons of pre-Revolutionary days, has not been maintained too well through the years because of lack of funds.

In 1834 the church was moved to its present site, about two miles from the first, and a brick structure erected. The pews, which seat 250 persons, are the original ones, with their individual doors, but the remainder of the interior has been redecorated. The side-walls have been painted buff, and the altar renovated, with new altar hangings.

With the exception of one service a year, usually in July or August, but held off until Sunday this year to commemorate the 200th celebration, the church is open only for an occasional baptism or confirmation. The Rev. Mr. McCutchen is chaplain at the Mont Alto State Sanitarium and the Pennsylvania State Forestry School, as well as vicar at Christ Episcopal.

He explained that the last Episcopalian family had moved from York Springs about seven years ago.

Bishop to Speak

the altar renovated, with new altar hangings.

With the exception of one service a year, usually in July or August, but held off until Sunday this year to commemorate the 200th celebration, the church is open only for an occasional baptism or confirmation. The Rev. Mr. McCutchen is chaplain at the Mont Alto State Sanitarium and the Pennsylvania State Forestry School, as well as vicar at Christ Episcopal.

He explained that the last Episcopalian family had moved from York Springs about seven years ago.

Bishop to Speak

At the service Sunday the Rt. Rev. J. Thomas Heistand, Bishop of the Diocese, will preach the sermon, and the Rev. Canon Paul F. Atkins, St. John's, York, and the Rev. Earl M. Honaman, St. John's, Carlisle, will assist the Rev. Mr. McCutchen.

Worshippers are expected from as far as Philadelphia, Lancaster, and other parts of Pennsylvania.

THIS PARISH WAS FOUNDED IN
1748 BY THE REV. GEORGE CRAIG
A PRIEST OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND
WORKING UNDER THE AUSPICES OF
THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION
OF THE GOSPEL IN FOREIGN PARTS

RECTOR
VEN. ROBERT T. McCUTCHEN
SOUTH MOUNTAIN, PA.

YORK SPRINGS CHURCH 200 YEARS OLD—Christ Episcopal Church, York Springs, will mark its 200th anniversary Sunday with a service at 4 p. m., in which the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Heistand, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Harrisburg, will participate. The pictures show, from top to bottom, the present church building, the original log structure, set in a cemetery, the plaque near the door which describes the founding, and a rear and side view of the present church.

York Springs Church Marks 200th Year Sunday

THIS PARISH WAS FOUNDED IN
1748 BY THE REV. GEORGE CRAIG
A PRIEST OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND
WORKING UNDER THE AUSPICES OF
THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION
OF THE GOSPEL IN FOREIGN PARTS

Christ Episcopal Church, York Springs, mother church of the Episcopal denomination in the Cumberland Valley and probably in Central Pennsylvania, will mark its 200th anniversary Sunday.

Clergymen and members of the daughter churches will participate in the service arranged by the Archdeacon of the Diocese, the Rev. Robert T. McCutchen, for 4 p. m.

Back in 1748, when York Springs was known as Huntingdon, a small colony of English farmers settled there wrote the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, London, England, to send a clergyman.

They added they not only had a tract of land where they had constructed a crude church, but also had a subscription list of 39 worshippers.

The reply from London was to send a minister, the Rev. George Craig, who was responsible not only for the "Huntingdon" charge, where he was to live, but to serve St. John's Episcopal Church, York, "one Sunday in six," and St. John's, Carlisle, "two Sundays in six." As a result the two large parishes in York and Carlisle have been the outgrowth, the Rev. Mr. McCutchen explained.

Log Structure
The original church, a log structure, was built on a 20 by 30 foot plot in the heart of a small cemetery. The burial ground, containing graves of 150 persons of pre-Revolutionary days, has not been maintained too well through the years because of lack of funds.

In 1834 the church was moved to its present site, about two miles from the first, and a brick structure erected. The pews, which seat 250 persons, are the original ones, with their individual doors, but the remainder of the interior has been redecorated. The side walls have been painted buff, and the altar renovated, with new altar hangings.

With the exception of one service a year, usually in July or August, but held off until Sunday this year to commemorate the 200th celebration, the church is open only for an occasional baptism or confirmation. The Rev. Mr. McCutchen is chaplain at the Mount Alto State Sanitarium and the Pennsylvania State Forestry School, as well as vicar at Christ Episcopal.

He explained that the last Episcopal family had moved from York Springs about seven years ago.

Bishop to Speak

York Springs Church Marks 200th Year Sunday

Christ Episcopal Church, York Springs, mother church of the Episcopal denomination in the Cumberland Valley and probably in Central Pennsylvania, will mark its 200th anniversary Sunday.

Clergymen and members of the daughter churches will participate in the service arranged by the Archdeacon of the Diocese, the Rev. Robert T. McCutchen, for 4 p. m.

Back in 1748, when York Springs was known as Huntingdon, a small colony of English farmers settled there wrote the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, London, England, to send a clergyman. They added they not only had a tract of land where they had constructed a crude church, but also had a subscription list of 39 worshippers.

The reply from London was to send a minister, the Rev. George Craig, who was responsible not only for the "Huntingdon" charge, where he was to live, but to serve St. John's Episcopal Church, York, "one Sunday in six," and St. John's, Carlisle, "two Sundays in six." As a result the two large parishes in York and Carlisle have been the outgrowth, the Rev. Mr. McCutchen explained.

Log Structure

The original church, a log structure, was built on a 20 by 30 foot plot in the heart of a small cemetery. The burial ground, containing graves of 150 persons of pre-Revolutionary days, has not been maintained too well through the years because of lack of funds.

In 1834 the church was moved to its present site, about two miles from the first, and a brick structure erected. The pews, which seat 250 persons, are the original ones, with their individual doors, but the remainder of the interior has been redecorated. The side walls have been painted buff, and the altar renovated, with new altar hangings.

With the exception of one service a year, usually in July or August, but held off until Sunday this year to commemorate the 200th celebration, the church is open only for an occasional baptism or confirmation. The Rev. Mr. McCutchen is chaplain at the Mont Alto State Sanitarium and the Pennsylvania State Forestry School, as well as vicar at Christ Episcopal.

He explained that the last Episcopalian family had moved from York Springs about seven years ago.

Bishop to Speak

At the service Sunday the Rt. Rev. J. Thomas Heistand, Bishop of the Diocese, will preach the sermon, and the Rev. Canon Paul F. Atkins, St. John's, York, and the Rev. Earl M. Honaman, St. John's, Carlisle, will assist the Rev. Mr. McCutchen.

Worshippers are expected from as far as Philadelphia, Lancaster, and other parts of Pennsylvania.

THIS PARISH WAS FOUNDED IN 1748 BY THE REV. GEORGE CRAIG A PRIEST OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND WORKING UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE GOSPEL IN FOREIGN PARTS

RECTOR
VEN. ROBERT T. MCCUTCHEN
SOUTH MOUNTAIN, PA.

YORK SPRINGS CHURCH 200 YEARS OLD—Christ Episcopal Church, York Springs, will mark its 200th anniversary Sunday with a service at 4 p. m., in which the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Heistand, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Harrisburg, will participate. The pictures show, from top to bottom, the present church, building, the original log structure, set in a cemetery, the plaque near the door which describes the founding, and a rear and side view of the present church.

Rev. J. Thomas Heistand, Bishop of the Diocese, will preach the sermon, and the Rev. Canon Paul F. Atkins, St. John's, York, and the Rev. Earl M. Honaman, St. John's, Carlisle, will assist the Rev. Mr. McCutchen.

Worshippers are expected from as far as Philadelphia, Lancaster, and other parts of Pennsylvania,

RECTOR
VEN. ROBERT T. MCCUTCHEN
SOUTH MOUNTAIN, PA.

YORK SPRINGS CHURCH 200 YEARS OLD—Christ Episcopal Church, York Springs, will mark its 200th anniversary Sunday with a service at 4 p. m., in which the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Heistand, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Harrisburg, will participate. The pictures show, from top to bottom, the present church building, the original log structure, set in a cemetery, the plaque near the door which describes the founding, and a rear and side view of the present church.

Restaurant & Motor Inn

1-2285 624-7778

EXE ACCOMMODATIONS -

- Breakfast • Lunch
- Dinner

HOME COOKING

YORK PD.

NEW OXFORD

Gettysburg Family Center

- MINI GOLF • ARCADE
- SOFTBALL • BASEBALL
- BATTING CAGES
- SNACK BAR • PARTIES

334-4653

(1 Mi. E. Of Town Square On Rt. 30 Next To Day)

881 YORK RD.

GETTYSBURG

RO
K
copy

that need. Drawing principally upon various documents of the Menallen Friends Monthly Meeting and the Friends Library at Swarthmore College, 100 Years at Warrington: York County, Pennsylvania Quakers Marriages, Removals, Births & Deaths (1989) and Menallen Minutes, Marriages and Miscellany: Quaker Records, 1780-1890 (1992) make conveniently accessible Quaker records pertaining to marriage, burial, removal, and discipline. The earlier volume, as its title suggests, reprints records dating from the late 1740s on which reflect Quaker history in York County, particularly in the Warrington-Newberry meetings, from which the Huntington and Menallen meetings derived. With the second volume, the emphasis, again as reflected in the title, shifts to the Menallen meeting, formally established in 1780.

Both volumes reproduce important information, but the 1992 publication is presented more attractively, and it also offers more kinds of information. Walmer introduces Menallen Minutes with a very desirable 26-page discussion of the complicated history and interrelationships of the Newberry, Warrington, Huntington, Menallen, and York meetings. Four pages of attractive maps clearly identify the sites of the Quaker meeting houses. And finally—not a minor matter, surely—the type style in the later publication is both more attractive and easier to read.

Like the first volume, Menallen Minutes reprints names and details relating to marriages, deaths, and removals. But because the author also summarizes, occasionally quoting from, the Menallen minutes, it additionally offers intriguing and extremely valuable insight into charitable and disciplinary activities of the meeting as it tried to maintain its identity, and, in many ways, to survive in a culture often hostile to it. The minutes preserve the meeting's decisions to deal with members who had strayed from the Quaker norm, for example, by marrying "out of unity," behaving reprehensibly (i.e., drinking, swearing, dancing, brawling, etc.), responding to muster call, or not attending meeting for some time. The minutes also detail the relocations of Quakers to and from other meetings, as Menallen had to receive, grant, and act upon certificates of removal.

Many of these abstracts make at least this reader regret that space and cost prevented the author from reprinting the minutes in their entirety. Under the family name "Tudor" (p. 136), for example, such entries as the following tease one to want to read more: "John, . . . compl[ained] of: slaveholding; fighting"; "Lewis, . . . compl[ained] of: marching with Oddfellows."

Occasionally, a complete entry is reprinted, justifying our curiosity about the other abbreviated records. Space permits only one quotation:

COMER, Richard, 5-12-1788, . . . "attending Musters, charged with being guilty of fornication, used no endeavour to clear himself of the charge, and when he was spoke to in these accounts discharged friends on pain of death from coming to treat with him any further on that occasion.

(p. 45)

The two books are available at the Society for the following prices: 100 Years at Warrington, $22.00, plus $1.32 for state tax; Menallen Minutes, $22.50, plus $1.35 tax.

— James P. Myers, Jr.

CHRIST (EPISCOPAL) CHURCH, HUNTINGTON TOWNSHIP

Records associated with the early Episcopal, or Anglican as it was then popularly known, church in what is now upper Adams county are also becoming more readily available. Recently found in the collections of the York County Historical Society is the vestry book of Christ's (or Christ) Church, Huntington township. The volume was begun in 1760 with the appointment of the Rev. Mr. William Thomson as the second rector in the succession of that church's ministers (what remains of his predecessor's vestry book—that of the Rev. Thomas Barton—is to be found in the archives of St. James Episcopal Church, Lancaster).

Among the other important and obvious reasons that even this incomplete vestry record is useful is the clue it provides in helping us determine the identity of a church which was the subject of a c. 1860 sketch. Although the building in the drawing is identified as Christ Church, Huntington, the further designation that it is the "first log church" of that name is incorrect.

We know from early letters written by both clergy and members of the Anglican community that the original log structure was constructed around 1745. In a letter of 16 October 1746, the Episcopal missionary for Lancaster, the Rev. Richard Locke described his activities among the Anglicans who lived "over" Susquehanna in the present Huntington and Tyrone townships. Observing that those claiming association with the Church of England numbered 100-150 persons, he recorded that they had acquired some 180 acres of land for a glebe and erected "a Log House church."

An itinerant missionary for the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts (usually abbreviated to "S.P.G."), Locke was transferred in 1740 to a congregation in Virginia; he was succeeded by the Rev. George Craig. The congregation in Huntington, however, requested that the S.P.G. provide them with their own resident clergyman. In their petition of 3 October 1748, "the Inhabitants of the townships of Huntington and Tyrone, commonly called Conninga [i.e., Conewago]" pointed out that they had acquired "another tract upon the banks of the Susquehanna about twenty miles" distant which was added to the earlier glebe holdings. They also provided some particulars for their log church: it measured "thirty feet long and twenty wide."

It was to this log structure that the Rev. Mr. Thomas Barton, an Anglo-Irishman from co. Monaghan, came in 1755 as the first Church-of-England minister to reside west of the Susquehanna—his residence or "small plantation" was situated in Reading township on what is now, according to the research of Arthur Weaner, the Fred and Gerald Ebersole farms east of Lake Meade and south of Mud Run.

Using Huntington as his principal parish, Barton rode a circuit that embraced St. John's Church in Carlisle and St. John's in York. In addition, he also attended to the needs of Episcopalians scattered in smaller communities from Shippensburg to Marsh Creek and found time as well to work at converting the Indians or Native Americans.

Apparently successful, Thomas Barton soon found his little log church unable to hold the numbers who thronged to Huntington, and he was, he wrote in 1756, "sometimes obliged to preach to them under the covert of the trees." During the Indian wars that followed Major General Braddock's defeat in 1755, Christ's Church served as a rallying point for the settlers fearing raiding parties. Records show that Thomas Barton, assuming an unofficial rank of captain, often led his people on raiding parties.

With the fall in 1758 of Ft. Duquesne, the French fortress at the site of present-day Pittsburgh, Barton was transferred to Lancaster. He was succeeded at Christ's Church in 1760 by his American-born friend William Thomson, son of the Rev. Samuel Thomson who was at that time minister of the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church.

An entry in the Christ Church vestry book for 13 June 1763 records that the vestry concurred "that a New Church of Square Logg shall be built at Huntington and that Edw^d Hatton, Isaac Sadler, Jn^o Maxwell and Jn^o Wilson shall agree with the Carpenter to build a C^h of such demensions as they shall think proper." The unsettled conditions caused by continuing frontier warfare and a shortage of funds, however, prevented completion of the new building until sometime before June of 1767.

Population movements resulting from the Indian wars and the growth of Carlisle and York gradually relegated Christ's Church, once the pivotal parish, to a very subordinate position. Its decline continued into the nineteenth century. In 1836, the vestry agreed to erect a chapel in Petersburg (York Springs). The shift to the nearby town, however, failed ultimately to stop the decline, and in 1880 the York Springs chapel merged with the Prince of Peace congregation—the Huntington glebe lands having already been sold off in 1854 to Abraham

Fickes.

The library of Dickinson College, Carlisle, was recently given several boxes of archival records by St. John's Episcopal Church in the same borough. Among the very important materials in that collection is an attractively executed pen-and-ink, tinted-wash drawing entitled "Christ Church, Huntington: sketch of the first log church." In a penciled note, historian H[enry] J. Y[oung], adds that "this sketch was made by the Rev. Francis Clere in [the] 1860's."

The drawing depicts a two-story log church and provides in the left-hand corner a plan of the first floor. Stairs in the left of the plan suggest that the second floor may have been a gallery or a balcony; indeed, the reconstructed log church in Old Bedford Village and the still extant early nineteenth-century Lutheran log church on Rt. 30, west of Schellsburg, which inspired the one at Bedford, provide for just such a gallery.

We are very fortunate to have available that visual record of the structure. Whoever typed the notation that the sketch was of the "first log church," however, erred: for as the vestry minutes reveal the older 20' by 30' building which served the Revs. Locke and Barton was replaced by one erected 1763-9 during the incumbency of William Thomson. Presumably, Rev. Clere's drawing, then, is of the second and (we trust) larger log structure.

Special Collections, Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

that need. Drawing principally upon various documents of the Menallen Friends Monthly Meeting and the Friends Library at Swarthmore College, 100 Years at Warrington: York County, Pennsylvania Quakers Marriages, Removals, Births & Deaths (1989) and Menallen Minutes, Marriages and Miscellany: Quaker Records, 1780-1890 (1992) make conveniently accessible Quaker records pertaining to marriage, burial, removal, and discipline. The earlier volume, as its title suggests, reprints records dating from the late 1740s on which reflect Quaker history in York County, particularly in the Warrington-Newberry meetings, from which the Huntington and Menallen meetings derived. With the second volume, the emphasis, again as reflected in the title, shifts to the Menallen meeting, formally established in 1780.

Both volumes reproduce important information, but the 1992 publication is presented more attractively, and it also offers more kinds of information. Walmer introduces Menallen Minutes with a very desirable 26-page discussion of the complicated history and interrelationships of the Newberry, Warrington, Huntington, Menallen, and York meetings. Four pages of attractive maps clearly identify the sites of the Quaker meeting houses. And finally—not a minor matter, surely—the type style in the later publication is both more attractive and easier to read.

Like the first volume, Menallen Minutes reprints names and details relating to marriages, deaths, and removals. But because the author also summarizes, occasionally quoting from, the Menallen minutes, it additionally offers intriguing and extremely valuable insight into charitable and disciplinary activities of the meeting as it tried to maintain its identity, and, in many ways, to survive in a culture often hostile to it. The minutes preserve the meeting's decisions to deal with members who had strayed from the Quaker norm, for example, by marrying "out of unity," behaving reprehensibly (i.e., drinking, swearing, dancing, brawling, etc.), responding to muster call, or not attending meeting for some time. The minutes also detail the relocations of Quakers to and from other meetings, as Menallen had to receive, grant, and act upon certificates of removal.

Many of these abstracts make at least this reader regret that space and cost prevented the author from reprinting the minutes in their entirety. Under the family name "Tudor" (p. 136), for example, such entries as the following tease one to want to read more: "John, . . . compl[ained] of: slaveholding; fighting"; "Lewis, . . . compl[ained] of: marching with Oddfellows."

Occasionally, a complete entry is reprinted, justifying our curiosity about the other abbreviated records. Space permits only one quotation:

COMER, Richard, 5-12-1788, . . . "attending Musters, charged with being guilty of fornication, used no endeavour to clear himself of the charge, and when he was spoke to in these accounts discharged friends on pain of death from coming to treat with him any further on that occasion.

(p. 45)

The two books are available at the Society for the following prices: 100 Years at Warrington, $22.00, plus $1.32 for state tax; Menallen Minutes, $22.50, plus $1.35 tax.

— James P. Myers, Jr.

CHRIST (EPISCOPAL) CHURCH, HUNTINGTON TOWNSHIP

Records associated with the early Episcopal, or Anglican as it was then popularly known, church in what is now upper Adams county are also becoming more readily available. Recently found in the collections of the York County Historical Society is the vestry book of Christ's (or Christ) Church, Huntington township. The volume was begun in 1760 with the appointment of the Rev. Mr. William Thomson as the second rector in the succession of that church's ministers (what remains of his predecessor's vestry book—that of the Rev. Thomas Barton—is to be found in the archives of St. James Episcopal Church, Lancaster).

Among the other important and obvious reasons that even this incomplete vestry record is useful is the clue it provides in helping us determine the identity of a church which was the subject of a c. 1860 sketch. Although the building in the drawing is identified as Christ Church, Huntington, the further designation that it is the "first log church" of that name is incorrect.

We know from early letters written by both clergy and members of the Anglican community that the original log structure was constructed around 1745. In a letter of 16 October 1746, the Episcopal missionary for Lancaster, the Rev. Richard Locke described his activities among the Anglicans who lived "over" Susquehanna in the present Huntington and Tyrone townships. Observing that those claiming association with the Church of England numbered 100-150 persons, he recorded that they had acquired some 180 acres of land for a glebe and erected "a Log House church."

An itinerant missionary for the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts (usually abbreviated to "S.P.G."), Locke was transferred in 1740 to a congregation in Virginia; he was succeeded by the Rev. George Craig. The congregation in Huntington, however, requested that the S.P.G. provide them with their own resident clergyman. In their petition of 3 October 1748, "the Inhabitants of the townships of Huntington and Tyrone, commonly called Conninga [i.e., Conewago]" pointed out that they had acquired "another tract upon the banks of the Susquehanna about twenty miles" distant which was added to the earlier glebe holdings. They also provided some particulars for their log church: it measured "thirty feet long and twenty wide."

It was to this log structure that the Rev. Mr. Thomas Barton, an Anglo-Irishman from co. Monaghan, came in 1755 as the first Church-of-England minister to reside west of the Susquehanna—his residence or "small plantation" was situated in Reading township on what is now, according to the research of Arthur Weaner, the Fred and Gerald Eber-sole farms east of Lake Meade and south of Mud Run.

Using Huntington as his principal parish, Barton rode a circuit that embraced St. John's Church in Carlisle and St. John's in York. In addition, he also attended to the needs of Episcopalians scattered in smaller communities from Shippensburg to Marsh Creek and found time as well to work at converting the Indians or Native Americans.

Apparently successful, Thomas Barton soon found his little log church unable to hold the numbers who thronged to Huntington, and he was, he wrote in 1756, "sometimes obliged to preach to them under the covert of the trees." During the Indian wars that followed Major General Braddock's defeat in 1755, Christ's Church served as a rallying point for the settlers fearing raiding parties. Records show that Thomas Barton, assuming an unofficial rank of captain, often led his people on raiding parties.

With the fall in 1758 of Ft. Duquesne, the French fortress at the site of present-day Pittsburgh, Barton was transferred to Lancaster. He was succeeded at Christ's Church in 1760 by his American-born friend William Thomson, son of the Rev. Samuel Thomson who was at that time minister of the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church.

An entry in the Christ Church vestry book for 13 June 1763 records that the vestry concurred "that a New Church of Square Logg shall be built at Huntington and that Edw^d Hatton, Isaac Sadler, Jn^o Maxwell and Jn^o Wilson shall agree with the Carpenter to build a C^h of such demensions as they shall think proper." The unsettled conditions caused by continuing frontier warfare and a shortage of funds, however, prevented completion of the new building until sometime before June of 1767.

Population movements resulting from the Indian wars and the growth of Carlisle and York gradually relegated Christ's Church, once the pivotal parish, to a very subordinate position. Its decline continued into the nineteenth century. In 1836, the vestry agreed to erect a chapel in Petersburg (York Springs). The shift to the nearby town, however, failed ultimately to stop the decline, and in 1880 the York Springs chapel merged with the Prince of Peace congregation—the Huntington glebe lands having already been sold off in 1854 to Abraham

Fickes.

The library of Dickinson College, Carlisle, was recently given several boxes of archival records by St. John's Episcopal Church in the same borough. Among the very important materials in that collection is an attractively executed pen-and-ink, tinted-wash drawing entitled "Christ Church, Huntington: sketch of the first log church." In a penciled note, historian H[enry]. J. Y[oung]. adds that "this sketch was made by the Rev. Francis Clere in [the] 1860's."

The drawing depicts a two-story log church and provides in the left-hand corner a plan of the first floor. Stairs in the left of the plan suggest that the second floor may have been a gallery or a balcony; indeed, the reconstructed log church in Old Bedford Village and the still extant early nineteenth-century Lutheran log church on Rt. 30, west of Schellsburg, which inspired the one at Bedford, provide for just such a gallery.

We are very fortunate to have available that visual record of the structure. Whoever typed the notation that the sketch was of the "first log church," however, erred: for as the vestry minutes reveal the older 20' by 30' building which served the Revs. Locke and Barton was replaced by one erected 1763-9 during the incumbency of William Thomson. Presumably, Rev. Clere's drawing, then, is of the second and (we trust) larger log structure.

Special Collections, Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

that need. Drawing principally upon various documents of the Menallen Friends Monthly Meeting and the Friends Library at Swarthmore College, 100 Years at Warrington: York County, Pennsylvania Quakers Marriages, Removals, Births & Deaths (1989) and Menallen Minutes, Marriages and Miscellany: Quaker Records, 1780-1890 (1992) make conveniently accessible Quaker records pertaining to marriage, burial, removal, and discipline. The earlier volume, as its title suggests, reprints records dating from the late 1740s on which reflect Quaker history in York County, particularly in the Warrington-Newberry meetings, from which the Huntington and Menallen meetings derived. With the second volume, the emphasis, again as reflected in the title, shifts to the Menallen meeting, formally established in 1780.

Both volumes reproduce important information, but the 1992 publication is presented more attractively, and it also offers more kinds of information. Walmer introduces Menallen Minutes with a very desirable 26-page discussion of the complicated history and interrelationships of the Newberry, Warrington, Huntington, Menallen, and York meetings. Four pages of attractive maps clearly identify the sites of the Quaker meeting houses. And finally—not a minor matter, surely—the type style in the later publication is both more attractive and easier to read.

Like the first volume, Menallen Minutes reprints names and details relating to marriages, deaths, and removals. But because the author also summarizes, occasionally quoting from, the Menallen minutes, it additionally offers intriguing and extremely valuable insight into charitable and disciplinary activities of the meeting as it tried to maintain its identity, and, in many ways, to survive in a culture often hostile to it. The minutes preserve the meeting's decisions to deal with members who had strayed from the Quaker norm, for example, by marrying "out of unity," behaving reprehensibly (i.e., drinking, swearing, dancing, brawling, etc.), responding to muster call, or not attending meeting for some time. The minutes also detail the relocations of Quakers to and from other meetings, as Menallen had to receive, grant, and act upon certificates of removal.

Many of these abstracts make at least this reader regret that space and cost prevented the author from reprinting the minutes in their entirety. Under the family name "Tudor" (p. 136), for example, such entries as the following tease one to want to read more: "John, . . . compl[ained] of: slaveholding; fighting"; "Lewis, . . . compl[ained] of: marching with Oddfellows."

Occasionally, a complete entry is reprinted, justifying our curiosity about the other abbreviated records. Space permits only one quotation:

COMER, Richard, 5-12-1788, . . . "attending Musters, charged with being guilty of fornication, used no endeavour to clear himself of the charge, and when he was spoke to in these accounts discharged friends on pain of death from coming to treat with him any further on that occasion.

(p. 45)

The two books are available at the Society for the following prices: 100 Years at Warrington, $22.00, plus $1.32 for state tax; Menallen Minutes, $22.50, plus $1.35 tax.

— James P. Myers, Jr.

CHRIST (EPISCOPAL) CHURCH, HUNTINGTON TOWNSHIP

Records associated with the early Episcopal, or Anglican as it was then popularly known, church in what is now upper Adams county are also becoming more readily available. Recently found in the collections of the York County Historical Society is the vestry book of Christ's (or Christ) Church, Huntington township. The volume was begun in 1760 with the appointment of the Rev. Mr. William Thomson as the second rector in the succession of that church's ministers (what remains of his predecessor's vestry book—that of the Rev. Thomas Barton—is to be found in the archives of St. James Episcopal Church, Lancaster).

Among the other important and obvious reasons that even this incomplete vestry record is useful is the clue it provides in helping us determine the identity of a church which was the subject of a c. 1860 sketch. Although the building in the drawing is identified as Christ Church, Huntington, the further designation that it is the "first log church" of that name is incorrect.

We know from early letters written by both clergy and members of the Anglican community that the original log structure was constructed around 1745. In a letter of 16 October 1746, the Episcopal missionary for Lancaster, the Rev. Richard Locke described his activities among the Anglicans who lived "over" Susquehanna in the present Huntington and Tyrone townships. Observing that those claiming association with the Church of England numbered 100-150 persons, he recorded that they had acquired some 180 acres of land for a glebe and erected "a Log House church."

An itinerant missionary for the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts (usually abbreviated to "S.P.G."), Locke was transferred in 1740 to a congregation in Virginia; he was succeeded by the Rev. George Craig. The congregation in Huntington, however, requested that the S.P.G. provide them with their own resident clergyman. In their petition of 3 October 1748, "the Inhabitants of the townships of Huntington and Tyrone, commonly called Conninga [i.e., Conewago]" pointed out that they had acquired "another tract upon the banks of the Susquehanna about twenty miles" distant which was added to the earlier glebe holdings. They also provided some particulars for their log church: it measured "thirty feet long and twenty wide."

It was to this log structure that the Rev. Mr. Thomas Barton, an Anglo-Irishman from co. Monaghan, came in 1755 as the first Church-of-England minister to reside west of the Susquehanna—his residence or "small plantation" was situated in Reading township on what is now, according to the research of Arthur Weaner, the Fred and Gerald Ebersole farms east of Lake Meade and south of Mud Run.

Using Huntington as his principal parish, Barton rode a circuit that embraced St. John's Church in Carlisle and St. John's in York. In addition, he also attended to the needs of Episcopalians scattered in smaller communities from Shippensburg to Marsh Creek and found time as well to work at converting the Indians or Native Americans.

Apparently successful, Thomas Barton soon found his little log church unable to hold the numbers who thronged to Huntington, and he was, he wrote in 1756, "sometimes obliged to preach to them under the covert of the trees." During the Indian wars that followed Major General Braddock's defeat in 1755, Christ's Church served as a rallying point for the settlers fearing raiding parties. Records show that Thomas Barton, assuming an unofficial rank of captain, often led his people on raiding parties.

With the fall in 1758 of Ft. Duquesne, the French fortress at the site of present-day Pittsburgh, Barton was transferred to Lancaster. He was succeeded at Christ's Church in 1760 by his American-born friend William Thomson, son of the Rev. Samuel Thomson who was at that time minister of the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church.

An entry in the Christ Church vestry book for 13 June 1763 records that the vestry concurred "that a New Church of Square Logg shall be built at Huntington and that Edw^d Hatton, Isaac Sadler, Jn^o Maxwell and Jn^o Wilson shall agree with the Carpenter to build a Ch^h of such demensions as they shall think proper." The unsettled conditions caused by continuing frontier warfare and a shortage of funds, however, prevented completion of the new building until sometime before June of 1767.

Population movements resulting from the Indian wars and the growth of Carlisle and York gradually relegated Christ's Church, once the pivotal parish, to a very subordinate position. Its decline continued into the nineteenth century. In 1836, the vestry agreed to erect a chapel in Petersburg (York Springs). The shift to the nearby town, however, failed ultimately to stop the decline, and in 1880 the York Springs chapel merged with the Prince of Peace congregation—the Huntington glebe lands having already been sold off in 1854 to Abraham

Fickes.

The library of Dickinson College, Carlisle, was recently given several boxes of archival records by St. John's Episcopal Church in the same borough. Among the very important materials in that collection is an attractively executed pen-and-ink, tinted-wash drawing entitled "Christ Church, Huntington: sketch of the first log church." In a penciled note, historian H[enry]. J. Y[oung], adds that "the sketch was made by the Rev. Francis Clere in [the] 1860's."

The drawing depicts a two-story log church and provides in the left-hand corner a plan of the first floor. Stairs in the left of the plan suggest that the second floor may have been a gallery or a balcony; indeed, the reconstructed log church in Old Bedford Village and the still extant early nineteenth-century Lutheran log church on Rt. 30, west of Schellsburg, which inspired the one at Bedford, provide for just such a gallery.

We are very fortunate to have available that visual record of the structure. Whoever typed the notation that the sketch was of the "first log church," however, erred: for as the vestry minutes reveal the older 20' by 30' building which served the Revs. Locke and Barton was replaced by one erected 1763-9 during the incumbency of William Thomson. Presumably, Rev. Clere's drawing, then, is of the second and (we trust) larger log structure.

Special Collections, Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

that need. Drawing principally upon various documents of the Menallen Friends Monthly Meeting and the Friends Library at Swarthmore College, 100 Years at Warrington: York County, Pennsylvania Quakers Marriages, Removals, Births & Deaths (1989) and Menallen Minutes, Marriages and Miscellany: Quaker Records, 1780-1890 (1992) make conveniently accessible Quaker records pertaining to marriage, burial, removal, and discipline. The earlier volume, as its title suggests, reprints records dating from the late 1740s on which reflect Quaker history in York County, particularly in the Warrington-Newberry meetings, from which the Huntington and Menallen meetings derived. With the second volume, the emphasis, again as reflected in the title, shifts to the Menallen meeting, formally established in 1780.

Both volumes reproduce important information, but the 1992 publication is presented more attractively, and it also offers more kinds of information. Walmer introduces Menallen Minutes with a very desirable 26-page discussion of the complicated history and interrelationships of the Newberry, Warrington, Huntington, Menallen, and York meetings. Four pages of attractive maps clearly identify the sites of the Quaker meeting houses. And finally—not a minor matter, surely—the type style in the later publication is both more attractive and easier to read.

Like the first volume, Menallen Minutes reprints names and details relating to marriages, deaths, and removals. But because the author also summarizes, occasionally quoting from, the Menallen minutes, it additionally offers intriguing and extremely valuable insight into charitable and disciplinary activities of the meeting as it tried to maintain its identity, and, in many ways, to survive in a culture often hostile to it. The minutes preserve the meeting's decisions to deal with members who had strayed from the Quaker norm, for example, by marrying "out of unity," behaving reprehensibly (i.e., drinking, swearing, dancing, brawling, etc.), responding to muster call, or not attending meeting for some time. The minutes also detail the relocations of Quakers to and from other meetings, as Menallen had to receive, grant, and act upon certificates of removal.

Many of these abstracts make at least this reader regret that space and cost prevented the author from reprinting the minutes in their entirety. Under the family name "Tudor" (p. 136), for example, such entries as the following tease one to want to read more: "John, . . . compl[ained] of: slaveholding; fighting"; "Lewis, . . . compl[ained] of: marching with Oddfellows."

Occasionally, a complete entry is reprinted, justifying our curiosity about the other abbreviated records. Space permits only one quotation:

COMER, Richard, 5-12-1788, . . . "attending Musters, charged with being guilty of fornication, used no endeavour to clear himself of the charge, and when he was spoke to in these accounts discharged friends on pain of death from coming to treat with him any further on that occasion.

(p. 45)

The two books are available at the Society for the following prices: 100 Years at Warrington, $22.00, plus $1.32 for state tax; Menallen Minutes, $22.50, plus $1.35 tax.

— James P. Myers, Jr.

CHRIST (EPISCOPAL) CHURCH, HUNTINGTON TOWNSHIP

Records associated with the early Episcopal, or Anglican as it was then popularly known, church in what is now upper Adams county are also becoming more readily available. Recently found in the collections of the York County Historical Society is the vestry book of Christ's (or Christ) Church, Huntington township. The volume was begun in 1760 with the appointment of the Rev. Mr. William Thomson as the second rector in the succession of that church's ministers (what remains of his predecessor's vestry book—that of the Rev. Thomas Barton—is to be found in the archives of St. James Episcopal Church, Lancaster).

Among the other important and obvious reasons that even this incomplete vestry record is useful is the clue it provides in helping us determine the identity of a church which was the subject of a c. 1860 sketch. Although the building in the drawing is identified as Christ Church, Huntington, the further designation that it is the "first log church" of that name is incorrect.

We know from early letters written by both clergy and members of the Anglican community that the original log structure was constructed around 1745. In a letter of 16 October 1746, the Episcopal missionary for Lancaster, the Rev. Richard Locke described his activities among the Anglicans who lived "over" Susquehanna in the present Huntington and Tyrone townships. Observing that those claiming association with the Church of England numbered 100-150 persons, he recorded that they had acquired some 180 acres of land for a glebe and erected "a Log House church."

An itinerant missionary for the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts (usually abbreviated to "S.P.G."), Locke was transferred in 1740 to a congregation in Virginia; he was succeeded by the Rev. George Craig. The congregation in Huntington, however, requested that the S.P.G. provide them with their own resident clergyman. In their petition of 3 October 1748, "the Inhabitants of the townships of Huntington and Tyrone, commonly called Conninga [i.e., Conewago]" pointed out that they had acquired "another tract upon the banks of the Susquehanna about twenty miles" distant which was added to the earlier glebe holdings. They also provided some particulars for their log church: it measured "thirty feet long and twenty wide."

It was to this log structure that the Rev. Mr. Thomas Barton, an Anglo-Irishman from co. Monaghan, came in 1755 as the first Church-of-England minister to reside west of the Susquehanna—his residence or "small plantation" was situated in Reading township on what is now, according to the research of Arthur Weaner, the Fred and Gerald Ebersole farms east of Lake Meade and south of Mud Run.

Using Huntington as his principal parish, Barton rode a circuit that embraced St. John's Church in Carlisle and St. John's in York. In addition, he also attended to the needs of Episcopalians scattered in smaller communities from Shippensburg to Marsh Creek and found time as well to work at converting the Indians or Native Americans.

Apparently successful, Thomas Barton soon found his little log church unable to hold the numbers who thronged to Huntington, and he was, he wrote in 1756, "sometimes obliged to preach to them under the covert of the trees." During the Indian wars that followed Major General Braddock's defeat in 1755, Christ's Church served as a rallying point for the settlers fearing raiding parties. Records show that Thomas Barton, assuming an unofficial rank of captain, often led his people on raiding parties.

With the fall in 1758 of Ft. Duquesne, the French fortress at the site of present-day Pittsburgh, Barton was transferred to Lancaster. He was succeeded at Christ's Church in 1760 by his American-born friend William Thomson, son of the Rev. Samuel Thomson who was at that time minister of the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church.

An entry in the Christ Church vestry book for 13 June 1763 records that the vestry concurred "that a New Church of Square Logg shall be built at Huntington and that Edw^d Hatton, Isaac Sadler, Jn^o Maxwell and Jn^o Wilson shall agree with the Carpenter to build a C^h of such demensions as they shall think proper." The unsettled conditions caused by continuing frontier warfare and a shortage of funds, however, prevented completion of the new building until sometime before June of 1767.

Population movements resulting from the Indian wars and the growth of Carlisle and York gradually relegated Christ's Church, once the pivotal parish, to a very subordinate position. Its decline continued into the nineteenth century. In 1836, the vestry agreed to erect a chapel in Petersburg (York Springs). The shift to the nearby town, however, failed ultimately to stop the decline, and in 1880 the York Springs chapel merged with the Prince of Peace congregation—the Huntington glebe lands having already been sold off in 1854 to Abraham

Fickes.

The library of Dickinson College, Carlisle, was recently given several boxes of archival records by St. John's Episcopal Church in the same borough. Among the very important materials in that collection is an attractively executed pen-and-ink, tinted-wash drawing entitled "Christ Church, Huntington: sketch of the first log church." In a penciled note, historian H[enry]. J. Y[oung]. adds that "this sketch was made by the Rev. Francis Clere in [the] 1860's."

The drawing depicts a two-story log church and provides in the left-hand corner a plan of the first floor. Stairs in the left of the plan suggest that the second floor may have been a gallery or a balcony: indeed, the reconstructed log church in Old Bedford Village and the still extant early nineteenth-century Lutheran log church on Rt. 30, west of Schellsburg, which inspired the one at Bedford, provide for just such a gallery.

We are very fortunate to have available that visual record of the structure. Whoever typed the notation that the sketch was of the "first log church," however, erred: for as the vestry minutes reveal the older 20' by 30' building which served the Revs. Locke and Barton was replaced by one erected 1763-9 during the incumbency of William Thomson. Presumably, Rev. Clere's drawing, then, is of the second and (we trust) larger log structure.

Special Collections, Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

that need. Drawing principally upon various documents of the Menallen Friends Monthly Meeting and the Friends Library at Swarthmore College, 100 Years at Warrington: York County, Pennsylvania Quakers Marriages, Removals, Births & Deaths (1989) and Menallen Minutes, Marriages and Miscellany: Quaker Records, 1780-1890 (1992) make conveniently accessible Quaker records pertaining to marriage, burial, removal, and discipline. The earlier volume, as its title suggests, reprints records dating from the late 1740s on which reflect Quaker history in York County, particularly in the Warrington-Newberry meetings, from which the Huntington and Menallen meetings derived. With the second volume, the emphasis, again as reflected in the title, shifts to the Menallen meeting, formally established in 1780.

Both volumes reproduce important information, but the 1992 publication is presented more attractively, and it also offers more kinds of information. Walmer introduces Menallen Minutes with a very desirable 26-page discussion of the complicated history and interrelationships of the Newberry, Warrington, Huntington, Menallen, and York meetings. Four pages of attractive maps clearly identify the sites of the Quaker meeting houses. And finally—not a minor matter, surely—the type style in the later publication is both more attractive and easier to read.

Like the first volume, Menallen Minutes reprints names and details relating to marriages, deaths, and removals. But because the author also summarizes, occasionally quoting from, the Menallen minutes, it additionally offers intriguing and extremely valuable insight into charitable and disciplinary activities of the meeting as it tried to maintain its identity, and, in many ways, to survive in a culture often hostile to it. The minutes preserve the meeting's decisions to deal with members who had strayed from the Quaker norm, for example, by marrying "out of unity," behaving reprehensibly (i.e., drinking, swearing, dancing, brawling, etc.), responding to muster call, or not attending meeting for some time. The minutes also detail the relocations of Quakers to and from other meetings, as Menallen had to receive, grant, and act upon certificates of removal.

Many of these abstracts make at least this reader regret that space and cost prevented the author from reprinting the minutes in their entirety. Under the family name "Tudor" (p. 136), for example, such entries as the following tease one to want to read more: "John, . . . compl[ained] of: slaveholding; fighting"; "Lewis, . . . compl[ained] of: marching with Oddfellows."

Occasionally, a complete entry is reprinted, justifying our curiosity about the other abbreviated records. Space permits only one quotation:

COMER, Richard, 5-12-1788, . . . "attending Musters, charged with being guilty of fornication, used no endeavour to clear himself of the charge, and when he was spoke to in these accounts discharged friends on pain of death from coming to treat with him any further on that occasion.

(p. 45)

The two books are available at the Society for the following prices: 100 Years at Warrington, $22.00, plus $1.32 for state tax; Menallen Minutes, $22.50, plus $1.35 tax.

— James P. Myers, Jr.

CHRIST (EPISCOPAL) CHURCH, HUNTINGTON TOWNSHIP

Records associated with the early Episcopal, or Anglican as it was then popularly known, church in what is now upper Adams county are also becoming more readily available. Recently found in the collections of the York County Historical Society is the vestry book of Christ's (or Christ) Church, Huntington township. The volume was begun in 1760 with the appointment of the Rev. Mr. William Thomson as the second rector in the succession of that church's ministers (what remains of his predecessor's vestry book—that of the Rev. Thomas Barton—is to be found in the archives of St. James Episcopal Church, Lancaster).

Among the other important and obvious reasons that even this incomplete vestry record is useful is the clue it provides in helping us determine the identity of a church which was the subject of a c. 1860 sketch. Although the building in the drawing is identified as Christ Church, Huntington, the further designation that it is the "first log church" of that name is incorrect.

We know from early letters written by both clergy and members of the Anglican community that the original log structure was constructed around 1745. In a letter of 16 October 1746, the Episcopal missionary for Lancaster, the Rev. Richard Locke described his activities among the Anglicans who lived "over" Susquehanna in the present Huntington and Tyrone townships. Observing that those claiming association with the Church of England numbered 100-150 persons, he recorded that they had acquired some 180 acres of land for a glebe and erected "a Log House church."

An itinerant missionary for the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts (usually abbreviated to "S.P.G."), Locke was transferred in 1740 to a congregation in Virginia; he was succeeded by the Rev. George Craig. The congregation in Huntington, however, requested that the S.P.G. provide them with their own resident clergyman. In their petition of 3 October 1748, "the Inhabitants of the townships of Huntington and Tyrone, commonly called Conninga [i.e., Conewago]" pointed out that they had acquired "another tract upon the banks of the Susquehanna about twenty miles" distant which was added to the earlier glebe holdings. They also provided some particulars for their log church: it measured "thirty feet long and twenty wide."

It was to this log structure that the Rev. Mr. Thomas Barton, an Anglo-Irishman from co. Monaghan, came in 1755 as the first Church-of-England minister to reside west of the Susquehanna—his residence or "small plantation" was situated in Reading township on what is now, according to the research of Arthur Weaner, the Fred and Gerald Eber-sole farms east of Lake Meade and south of Mud Run.

Using Huntington as his principal parish, Barton rode a circuit that embraced St. John's Church in Carlisle and St. John's in York. In addition, he also attended to the needs of Episcopalians scattered in smaller communities from Shippensburg to Marsh Creek and found time as well to work at converting the Indians or Native Americans.

Apparently successful, Thomas Barton soon found his little log church unable to hold the numbers who thronged to Huntington, and he was, he wrote in 1756, "sometimes obliged to preach to them under the covert of the trees." During the Indian wars that followed Major General Braddock's defeat in 1755, Christ's Church served as a rallying point for the settlers fearing raiding parties. Records show that Thomas Barton, assuming an unofficial rank of captain, often led his people on raiding parties.

With the fall in 1758 of Ft. Duquesne, the French fortress at the site of present-day Pittsburgh, Barton was transferred to Lancaster. He was succeeded at Christ's Church in 1760 by his American-born friend William Thomson, son of the Rev. Samuel Thomson who was at that time minister of the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church.

An entry in the Christ Church vestry book for 13 June 1763 records that the vestry concurred "that a New Church of Square Logg shall be built at Huntington and that Edw^d Hatton, Isaac Sadler, Jn^o Maxwell and Jn^o Wilson shall agree with the Carpenter to build a C^h of such demensions as they shall think proper." The unsettled conditions caused by continuing frontier warfare and a shortage of funds, however, prevented completion of the new building until sometime before June of 1767.

Population movements resulting from the Indian wars and the growth of Carlisle and York gradually relegated Christ's Church, once the pivotal parish, to a very subordinate position. Its decline continued into the nineteenth century. In 1836, the vestry agreed to erect a chapel in Petersburg (York Springs). The shift to the nearby town, however, failed ultimately to stop the decline, and in 1880 the York Springs chapel merged with the Prince of Peace congregation—the Huntington glebe lands having already been sold off in 1854 to Abraham

Fickes.

The library of Dickinson College, Carlisle, was recently given several boxes of archival records by St. John's Episcopal Church in the same borough. Among the very important materials in that collection is an attractively executed pen-and-ink, tinted-wash drawing entitled "Christ Church, Huntington: sketch of the first log church." In a penciled note, historian H[enry]. J. Y[oung]. adds that "this sketch was made by the Rev. Francis Clere in [the] 1860's."

The drawing depicts a two-story log church and provides in the left-hand corner a plan of the first floor. Stairs in the left of the plan suggest that the second floor may have been a gallery or a balcony; indeed, the reconstructed log church in Old Bedford Village and the still extant early nineteenth-century Lutheran log church on Rt. 30, west of Schellsburg, which inspired the one at Bedford, provide for just such a gallery.

We are very fortunate to have available that visual record of the structure. Whoever typed the notation that the sketch was of the "first log church," however, erred: for as the vestry minutes reveal the older 20' by 30' building which served the Revs. Locke and Barton was replaced by one erected 1763-9 during the incumbency of William Thomson. Presumably, Rev. Clere's drawing, then, is of the second and (we trust) larger log structure.

Special Collections, Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

that need. Drawing principally upon various documents of the Menallen Friends Monthly Meeting and the Friends Library at Swarthmore College, 100 Years at Warrington: York County, Pennsylvania Quakers Marriages, Removals, Births & Deaths (1989) and Menallen Minutes, Marriages and Miscellany: Quaker Records, 1780-1890 (1992) make conveniently accessible Quaker records pertaining to marriage, burial, removal, and discipline. The earlier volume, as its title suggests, reprints records dating from the late 1740s on which reflect Quaker history in York County, particularly in the Warrington-Newberry meetings, from which the Huntington and Menallen meetings derived. With the second volume, the emphasis, again as reflected in the title, shifts to the Menallen meeting, formally established in 1780.

Both volumes reproduce important information, but the 1992 publication is presented more attractively, and it also offers more kinds of information. Walmer introduces Menallen Minutes with a very desirable 26-page discussion of the complicated history and interrelationships of the Newberry, Warrington, Huntington, Menallen, and York meetings. Four pages of attractive maps clearly identify the sites of the Quaker meeting houses. And finally—not a minor matter, surely—the type style in the later publication is both more attractive and easier to read.

Like the first volume, Menallen Minutes reprints names and details relating to marriages, deaths, and removals. But because the author also summarizes, occasionally quoting from, the Menallen minutes, it additionally offers intriguing and extremely valuable insight into charitable and disciplinary activities of the meeting as it tried to maintain its identity, and, in many ways, to survive in a culture often hostile to it. The minutes preserve the meeting's decisions to deal with members who had strayed from the Quaker norm, for example, by marrying "out of unity," behaving reprehensibly (i.e., drinking, swearing, dancing, brawling, etc.), responding to muster call, or not attending meeting for some time. The minutes also detail the relocations of Quakers to and from other meetings, as Menallen had to receive, grant, and act upon certificates of removal.

Many of these abstracts make at least this reader regret that space and cost prevented the author from reprinting the minutes in their entirety. Under the family name "Tudor" (p. 136), for example, such entries as the following tease one to want to read more: "John, . . . compl[ained] of: slaveholding; fighting"; "Lewis, . . . compl[ained] of: marching with Oddfellows."

Occasionally, a complete entry is reprinted, justifying our curiosity about the other abbreviated records. Space permits only one quotation:

COMER, Richard, 5-12-1788, . . . "attending Musters, charged with being guilty of fornication, used no endeavour to clear himself of the charge, and when he was spoke to in these accounts discharged friends on pain of death from coming to treat with him any further on that occasion.

(p. 45)

The two books are available at the Society for the following prices: 100 Years at Warrington, $22.00, plus $1.32 for state tax; Menallen Minutes, $22.50, plus $1.35 tax.

— James P. Myers, Jr.

CHRIST (EPISCOPAL) CHURCH, HUNTINGTON TOWNSHIP

Records associated with the early Episcopal, or Anglican as it was then popularly known, church in what is now upper Adams county are also becoming more readily available. Recently found in the collections of the York County Historical Society is the vestry book of Christ's (or Christ) Church, Huntington township. The volume was begun in 1760 with the appointment of the Rev. Mr. William Thomson as the second rector in the succession of that church's ministers (what remains of his predecessor's vestry book—that of the Rev. Thomas Barton—is to be found in the archives of St. James Episcopal Church, Lancaster).

Among the other important and obvious reasons that even this incomplete vestry record is useful is the clue it provides in helping us determine the identity of a church which was the subject of a c. 1860 sketch. Although the building in the drawing is identified as Christ Church, Huntington, the further designation that it is the "first log church" of that name is incorrect.

We know from early letters written by both clergy and members of the Anglican community that the original log structure was constructed around 1745. In a letter of 16 October 1746, the Episcopal missionary for Lancaster, the Rev. Richard Locke described his activities among the Anglicans who lived "over" Susquehanna in the present Huntington and Tyrone townships. Observing that those claiming association with the Church of England numbered 100-150 persons, he recorded that they had acquired some 180 acres of land for a glebe and erected "a Log House church."

An itinerant missionary for the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts (usually abbreviated to "S.P.G."), Locke was transferred in 1740 to a congregation in Virginia; he was succeeded by the Rev. George Craig. The congregation in Huntington, however, requested that the S.P.G. provide them with their own resident clergyman. In their petition of 3 October 1748, "the Inhabitants of the townships of Huntington and Tyrone, commonly called Conninga [i.e., Conewago]" pointed out that they had acquired "another tract upon the banks of the Susquehanna about twenty miles" distant which was added to the earlier glebe holdings. They also provided some particulars for their log church: it measured "thirty feet long and twenty wide."

It was to this log structure that the Rev. Mr. Thomas Barton, an Anglo-Irishman from co. Monaghan, came in 1755 as the first Church-of-England minister to reside west of the Susquehanna—his residence or "small plantation" was situated in Reading township on what is now, according to the research of Arthur Weaner, the Fred and Gerald Ebersole farms east of Lake Meade and south of Mud Run.

Using Huntington as his principal parish, Barton rode a circuit that embraced St. John's Church in Carlisle and St. John's in York. In addition, he also attended to the needs of Episcopalians scattered in smaller communities from Shippensburg to Marsh Creek and found time as well to work at converting the Indians or Native Americans.

Apparently successful, Thomas Barton soon found his little log church unable to hold the numbers who thronged to Huntington, and he was, he wrote in 1756, "sometimes obliged to preach to them under the covert of the trees." During the Indian wars that followed Major General Braddock's defeat in 1755, Christ's Church served as a rallying point for the settlers fearing raiding parties. Records show that Thomas Barton, assuming an unofficial rank of captain, often led his people on raiding parties.

With the fall in 1758 of Ft. Duquesne, the French fortress at the site of present-day Pittsburgh, Barton was transferred to Lancaster. He was succeeded at Christ's Church in 1760 by his American-born friend William Thomson, son of the Rev. Samuel Thomson who was at that time minister of the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church.

An entry in the Christ Church vestry book for 13 June 1763 records that the vestry concurred "that a New Church of Square Logg shall be built at Huntington and that Edw^d Hatton, Isaac Sadler, Jn^o Maxwell and Jn^o Wilson shall agree with the Carpenter to build a C^h of such demensions as they shall think proper." The unsettled conditions caused by continuing frontier warfare and a shortage of funds, however, prevented completion of the new building until sometime before June of 1767.

Population movements resulting from the Indian wars and the growth of Carlisle and York gradually relegated Christ's Church, once the pivotal parish, to a very subordinate position. Its decline continued into the nineteenth century. In 1836, the vestry agreed to erect a chapel in Petersburg (York Springs). The shift to the nearby town, however, failed ultimately to stop the decline, and in 1880 the York Springs chapel merged with the Prince of Peace congregation—the Huntington glebe lands having already been sold off in 1854 to Abraham

Fickes.

The library of Dickinson College, Carlisle, was recently given several boxes of archival records by St. John's Episcopal Church in the same borough. Among the very important materials in that collection is an attractively executed pen-and-ink, tinted-wash drawing entitled "Christ Church, Huntington: sketch of the first log church." In a penciled note, historian H[enry]. J. Y[oung], adds that "this sketch was made by the Rev. Francis Clere in [the] 1860's."

The drawing depicts a two-story log church and provides in the left-hand corner a plan of the first floor. Stairs in the left of the plan suggest that the second floor may have been a gallery or a balcony: indeed, the reconstructed log church in Old Bedford Village and the still extant early nineteenth-century Lutheran log church on Rt. 30, west of Schellsburg, which inspired the one at Bedford, provide for just such a gallery.

We are very fortunate to have available that visual record of the structure. Whoever typed the notation that the sketch was of the "first log church," however, erred: for as the vestry minutes reveal the older 20' by 30' building which served the Revs. Locke and Barton was replaced by one erected 1763-9 during the incumbency of William Thomson. Presumably, Rev. Clere's drawing, then, is of the second and (we trust) larger log structure.

Special Collections, Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

Using Huntington as his principal parish, Barton rode a circuit that embraced St. John's Church in Carlisle and St. John's in York. In addition, he also attended to the needs of Episcopalians scattered in smaller communities from Shippensburg to Marsh Creek and found time as well to work at converting the Indians or Native Americans.

Apparently successful, Thomas Barton soon found his little log church unable to hold the numbers who thronged to Huntington, and he was, he wrote in 1756, "sometimes obliged to preach to them under the covert of the trees." During the Indian wars that followed Major General Braddock's defeat in 1755, Christ's Church served as a rallying point for the settlers fearing raiding parties. Records show that Thomas Barton, assuming an unofficial rank of captain, often led his people on raiding parties.

With the fall in 1758 of Ft. Duquesne, the French fortress at the site of present-day Pittsburgh, Barton was transferred to Lancaster. He was succeeded at Christ's Church in 1760 by his American-born friend William Thomson, son of the Rev. Samuel Thomson who was at that time minister of the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church.

An entry in the Christ Church vestry book for 13 June 1763 records that the vestry concurred "that a New Church of Square Logg shall be built at Huntington and that Edw^d Hatton, Isaac Sadler, Jn^o Maxwell and Jn^o Wilson shall agree with the Carpenter to build a C^h of such demensions as they shall think proper." The unsettled conditions caused by continuing frontier warfare and a shortage of funds, however, prevented completion of the new building until sometime before June of 1767.

Population movements resulting from the Indian wars and the growth of Carlisle and York gradually relegated Christ's Church, once the pivotal parish, to a very subordinate position. Its decline continued into the nineteenth century. In 1836, the vestry agreed to erect a chapel in Petersburg (York Springs). The shift to the nearby town, however, failed ultimately to stop the decline, and in 1880 the York Springs chapel merged with the Prince of Peace congregation—the Huntington glebe lands having already been sold off in 1854 to Abraham

Fickes.

The library of Dickinson College, Carlisle, was recently given several boxes of archival records by St. John's Episcopal Church in the same borough. Among the very important materials in that collection is an attractively executed pen-and-ink, tinted-wash drawing entitled "Christ Church, Huntington: sketch of the first log church." In a penciled note, historian H[enry]. J. Y[oung], adds that "this sketch was made by the Rev. Francis Clere in [the] 1860's."

The drawing depicts a two-story log church and provides in the left-hand corner a plan of the first floor. Stairs in the left of the plan suggest that the second floor may have been a gallery or a balcony: indeed, the reconstructed log church in Old Bedford Village and the still extant early nineteenth-century Lutheran log church on Rt. 30, west of Schellsburg, which inspired the one at Bedford, provide for just such a gallery.

We are very fortunate to have available that visual record of the structure. Whoever typed the notation that the sketch was of the "first log church," however, erred: for as the vestry minutes reveal the older 20' by 30' building which served the Revs. Locke and Barton was replaced by one erected 1763-9 during the incumbency of William Thomson. Presumably, Rev. Clere's drawing, then, is of the second and (we trust) larger log structure.

Special Collections, Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

that need. Drawing principally upon various documents of the Menallen Friends Monthly Meeting and the Friends Library at Swarthmore College, 100 Years at Warrington: York County, Pennsylvania Quakers Marriages, Removals, Births & Deaths (1989) and Menallen Minutes, Marriages and Miscellany: Quaker Records, 1780-1890 (1992) make conveniently accessible Quaker records pertaining to marriage, burial, removal, and discipline. The earlier volume, as its title suggests, reprints records dating from the late 1740s on which reflect Quaker history in York County, particularly in the Warrington-Newberry meetings, from which the Huntington and Menallen meetings derived. With the second volume, the emphasis, again as reflected in the title, shifts to the Menallen meeting, formally established in 1780.

Both volumes reproduce important information, but the 1992 publication is presented more attractively, and it also offers more kinds of information. Walmer introduces Menallen Minutes with a very desirable 26-page discussion of the complicated history and interrelationships of the Newberry, Warrington, Huntington, Menallen, and York meetings. Four pages of attractive maps clearly identify the sites of the Quaker meeting houses. And finally—not a minor matter, surely—the type style in the later publication is both more attractive and easier to read.

Like the first volume, Menallen Minutes reprints names and details relating to marriages, deaths, and removals. But because the author also summarizes, occasionally quoting from, the Menallen minutes, it additionally offers intriguing and extremely valuable insight into charitable and disciplinary activities of the meeting as it tried to maintain its identity, and, in many ways, to survive in a culture often hostile to it. The minutes preserve the meeting's decisions to deal with members who had strayed from the Quaker norm, for example, by marrying "out of unity," behaving reprehensibly (i.e., drinking, swearing, dancing, brawling, etc.), responding to muster call, or not attending meeting for some time. The minutes also detail the relocations of Quakers to and from other meetings, as Menallen had to receive, grant, and act upon certificates of removal.

Many of these abstracts make at least this reader regret that space and cost prevented the author from reprinting the minutes in their entirety. Under the family name "Tudor" (p. 136), for example, such entries as the following tease one to want to read more: "John, . . . compl[ained] of: slaveholding; fighting"; "Lewis, . . . compl[ained] of: marching with Oddfellows."

Occasionally, a complete entry is reprinted, justifying our curiosity about the other abbreviated records. Space permits only one quotation:

COMER, Richard, 5-12-1788, . . . "attending Musters, charged with being guilty of fornication, used no endeavour to clear himself of the charge, and when he was spoke to in these accounts discharged friends on pain of death from coming to treat with him any further on that occasion.

(p. 45)

The two books are available at the Society for the following prices: 100 Years at Warrington, $22.00, plus $1.32 for state tax; Menallen Minutes, $22.50, plus $1.35 tax.

— James P. Myers, Jr.

CHRIST (EPISCOPAL) CHURCH, HUNTINGTON TOWNSHIP

Records associated with the early Episcopal, or Anglican as it was then popularly known, church in what is now upper Adams county are also becoming more readily available. Recently found in the collections of the York County Historical Society is the vestry book of Christ's (or Christ) Church, Huntington township. The volume was begun in 1760 with the appointment of the Rev. Mr. William Thomson as the second rector in the succession of that church's ministers (what remains of his predecessor's vestry book—that of the Rev. Thomas Barton—is to be found in the archives of St. James Episcopal Church, Lancaster).

Among the other important and obvious reasons that even this incomplete vestry record is useful is the clue it provides in helping us determine the identity of a church which was the subject of a c. 1860 sketch. Although the building in the drawing is identified as Christ Church, Huntington, the further designation that it is the "first log church" of that name is incorrect.

We know from early letters written by both clergy and members of the Anglican community that the original log structure was constructed around 1745. In a letter of 16 October 1746, the Episcopal missionary for Lancaster, the Rev. Richard Locke described his activities among the Anglicans who lived "over" Susquehanna in the present Huntington and Tyrone townships. Observing that those claiming association with the Church of England numbered 100-150 persons, he recorded that they had acquired some 180 acres of land for a glebe and erected "a Log House church."

An itinerant missionary for the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts (usually abbreviated to "S.P.G."), Locke was transferred in 1740 to a congregation in Virginia; he was succeeded by the Rev. George Craig. The congregation in Huntington, however, requested that the S.P.G. provide them with their own resident clergyman. In their petition of 3 October 1748, "the Inhabitants of the townships of Huntington and Tyrone, commonly called Conninga [i.e., Conewago]" pointed out that they had acquired "another tract upon the banks of the Susquehanna about twenty miles" distant which was added to the earlier glebe holdings. They also provided some particulars for their log church: it measured "thirty feet long and twenty wide."

It was to this log structure that the Rev. Mr. Thomas Barton, an Anglo-Irishman from co. Monaghan, came in 1755 as the first Church-of-England minister to reside west of the Susquehanna—his residence or "small plantation" was situated in Reading township on what is now, according to the research of Arthur Weaner, the Fred and Gerald Ebersole farms east of Lake Meade and south of Mud Run.

Using Huntington as his principal parish, Barton rode a circuit that embraced St. John's Church in Carlisle and St. John's in York. In addition, he also attended to the needs of Episcopalians scattered in smaller communities from Shippensburg to Marsh Creek and found time as well to work at converting the Indians or Native Americans.

Apparently successful, Thomas Barton soon found his little log church unable to hold the numbers who thronged to Huntington, and he was, he wrote in 1756, "sometimes obliged to preach to them under the covert of the trees." During the Indian wars that followed Major General Braddock's defeat in 1755, Christ's Church served as a rallying point for the settlers fearing raiding parties. Records show that Thomas Barton, assuming an unofficial rank of captain, often led his people on raiding parties.

With the fall in 1758 of Ft. Duquesne, the French fortress at the site of present-day Pittsburgh, Barton was transferred to Lancaster. He was succeeded at Christ's Church in 1760 by his American-born friend William Thomson, son of the Rev. Samuel Thomson who was at that time minister of the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church.

An entry in the Christ Church vestry book for 13 June 1763 records that the vestry concurred "that a New Church of Square Logg shall be built at Huntington and that Edw^d Hatton, Isaac Sadler, Jn^o Maxwell and Jn^o Wilson shall agree with the Carpenter to build a C^h of such demensions as they shall think proper." The unsettled conditions caused by continuing frontier warfare and a shortage of funds, however, prevented completion of the new building until sometime before June of 1767.

Population movements resulting from the Indian wars and the growth of Carlisle and York gradually relegated Christ's Church, once the pivotal parish, to a very subordinate position. Its decline continued into the nineteenth century. In 1836, the vestry agreed to erect a chapel in Petersburg (York Springs). The shift to the nearby town, however, failed ultimately to stop the decline, and in 1880 the York Springs chapel merged with the Prince of Peace congregation—the Huntington glebe lands having already been sold off in 1854 to Abraham

Fickes.

The library of Dickinson College, Carlisle, was recently given several boxes of archival records by St. John's Episcopal Church in the same borough. Among the very important materials in that collection is an attractively executed pen-and-ink, tinted-wash drawing entitled "Christ Church, Huntington: sketch of the first log church." In a penciled note, historian H[enry]. J. Y[oung], adds that "this sketch was made by the Rev. Francis Clere in [the] 1860's."

The drawing depicts a two-story log church and provides in the left-hand corner a plan of the first floor. Stairs in the left of the plan suggest that the second floor may have been a gallery or a balcony: indeed, the reconstructed log church in Old Bedford Village and the still extant early nineteenth-century Lutheran log church on Rt. 30, west of Schellsburg, which inspired the one at Bedford, provide for just such a gallery.

We are very fortunate to have available that visual record of the structure. Whoever typed the notation that the sketch was of the "first log church," however, erred: for as the vestry minutes reveal the older 20' by 30' building which served the Revs. Locke and Barton was replaced by one erected 1763-9 during the incumbency of William Thomson. Presumably, Rev. Clere's drawing, then, is of the second and (we trust) larger log structure.

Special Collections, Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

17320-0000

ROENA BAYERS
15 MAIN TRAIL
FAIRFIELD PA

Non-Profit Org
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
Gettysburg, PA
Permit No. 211

Adams County Historical Society
Samuel Simon Schmucker Hall
Box 4325
Gettysburg, Pennsylvania 17325
Address Correction Requested

Today, only a small enclosed piece of land, containing a badly vandalized graveyard, remains to memorialize that early center of Episcopalian activity in Adams county. To find it, drive east on Rt. 234 from the center of Heidlersburg past the Rt. 15 interchange and take the first left-hand turn. Drive about one mile north on White Church Rd. (which may take its name from the early practice of whitewashing log structures), and you will see to the right the burial ground which marks the site of the first Episcopal church to be erected west of the Susquehanna.

—James P. Myers, Jr.

QUERIES

Upon receipt of a check in the amount of $2.50 per entry (for members of the Society, as well as nonmembers), the Newsletter will print short requests for historical and genealogical information.

Entries to be printed should be typed and should include the names and addresses of the interested parties. To be printed in an issue, they need to be received at the Society by the 2nd day of the preceding month. Submissions received after the 2nd will be printed two months later. All entries are subject to editing.

The check to cover the entry or entries should be made out to the Adams County Historical Society. Please send all entries to the Newsletter at the Society's address.

PUBLICATIONS AVAILABLE FROM THE SOCIETY

To obtain a list of publications, with prices, currently available from the Society, send a letter or postcard to the

Adams County Historical Society
Box 4325
Gettysburg, PA 17325.

The Adams County Historical Society's Quarters are located in Samuel Simon Schmucker Hall of The Lutheran Theological Seminary on Seminary Ridge, Gettysburg, PA. The quarters are open during the following hours:

Wednesday —	1:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M.
Saturday —	9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.
President —	Mrs. Mary Lou Schwartz
Director —	Dr. Charles H. Glatfelter
Assoc. Director —	Mrs. Elizabeth M. Tangen
Assoc. Director —	Mr. Arthur Weaner
Newsletter Editor —	Dr. James P. Myers, Jr.
Program Committee —	Mr. William Millar, Mrs. Betty Myers, Mr. William Frassanito

Phone Number — 717-334-4723

Mailing Address — The Adams County Historical Society,
Box 4325, Gettysburg, PA 17325

The Newsletter is published every month except July and August.

Annual	Individual Membership —	$15.00
Dues	Family Membership —	$25.00
	Contributing Membership —	$50.00
	Sponsoring Membership —	$100.00
	Life Membership —	$350.00
	Edward McPherson Society Membership —	$1000.00

NEWSLETTER

of the

Adams County Historical Society

January 1993

Volume 20, Number 1

THE DECEMBER MEETING

The meeting of 1 December, held in the Society's headquarters which had been appropriately, and beautifully, decorated for the occasion, was given over to the celebration of the Christmas season. Dr. Walter Powell, historical preservation officer for the borough of Gettysburg, prefaced the principal event with a short commentary. He pointed out that the evening's random sampling of nineteenth-century songs—an event entitled "Music for Godey's Ladies: Music in a Nineteenth-Century Gettysburg Parlor"—drew its inspiration from the Philadelphia publication Godey's Ladies' Book. Popular during the 1850s and 1860s, this book was a compendium of essays, short fiction, poetry, music, and fashion illustrations.

Accompanied by Society President Mary Lou Schwartz at the pedal-organ, Dr. Powell sang a medley of songs (interlarded with commentary), both seasonally appropriate and otherwise, in vogue during the middle and late nineteenth century, inviting the audience to join in singing the more familiar pieces.

About midway through the evening, Mr. John P. Geiselman was invited to reminisce. Explaining the chalk drawing on the large blackboard at the front of the meeting room on which he had sketched a picture entitled "Christmas at Horner's School," John recalled many of the earlier chalk drawings he had made at popular request by students and staff at that school located on the Two Tavern-Barlow Road. He also spoke more generally on experiences at that school.

Following the musical reminiscence, President Schwartz invited members to socialize with one another as they partook of the ample refreshments provided.

THE JANUARY MEETING

The speaker for the Society's regular meeting on Tuesday, 5 January, at 7:30 p.m. will be Dr. Charles H. Glatfelter, executive director. Observing what has become an outstanding tradition for the first meeting of the new year, he will give his annual report regarding the Society's activities and accessions during 1992.

The place will be in the meeting room of Schmucker Hall on the Seminary campus. As always, there is no admission charge, and the public is invited to attend.

DEATH OF A MEMBER

Mrs. Nancy W. Kammerer, a member of the society for many years, died on November 13, 1992 at the age of seventy-seven years. Mrs. Kammerer was keenly interested in the history of the Hunterstown area and was one of the most knowledgeable persons on that subject. She will be missed.

RECENT PUBLICATIONS ON ADAMS COUNTY QUAKERS

Extant records relating to the eighteenth-century settlement of what is now Adams county suggest a tendency on the part of the early inhabitants to form communities centered about their churches and meeting houses. This they did because of poor communications and great difficulties in traveling and because of the support they could give one another. It almost goes without saying that clustering also made it easier to monitor behavior among members and thereby to enforce on them conformity and uniformity in belief and practice essential to the survival of the congregations. We thus find that Presbyterians dominated the areas along Marsh and the lower Conewago Creeks and that Roman Catholics maintained a firm presence in the southeastern part of the county. The northern portion of the county, on the other hand, was the site of Anglican (Episcopalian) and Quaker settlements. This religious clustering was reinforced by an ethnic factor, the Presbyterians tending to be Scots-Irish, with some Scots; the Quakers, and even Episcopalians, revealing a strongly Anglo-Irish component.

Although investigators—most notably Arthur Weaner and Charles H. Glatfelter in their forthcoming publication on the Manor of Masque—have done much to illuminate the Scots-Irish Presbyterian settlements, persons interested in upper Adams county have not had much easily available with which to work. Two recent books by society member Margaret B. Walmer, however, have considerably supplied that need. Drawing principally upon various documents of the Menallen Friends Monthly Meeting and the Friends Library at Swarthmore College, 100 Years at Warrington: York County, Pennsylvania Quakers Marriages, Removals, Births & Deaths (1989) and Menallen Minutes, Marriages and Miscellany: Quaker Records, 1780-1890 (1992) make conveniently accessible Quaker records pertaining to marriage, burial, removal, and discipline. The earlier volume, as its title suggests, reprints records dating from the late 1740s on which reflect Quaker history in York County, particularly in the Warrington-Newberry meetings, from which the Huntington and Menallen meetings derived. With the second volume, the emphasis, again as reflected in the title, shifts to the Menallen meeting, formally established in 1780.

Both volumes reproduce important information, but the 1992 publication is presented more attractively, and it also offers more kinds of information. Walmer introduces Menallen Minutes with a very desirable 26-page discussion of the complicated history and interrelationships of the Newberry, Warrington, Huntington, Menallen, and York meetings. Four pages of attractive maps clearly identify the sites of the Quaker meeting houses. And finally—not a minor matter, surely—the type style in the later publication is both more attractive and easier to read.

Like the first volume, Menallen Minutes reprints names and details relating to marriages, deaths, and removals. But because the author also summarizes, occasionally quoting from, the Menallen minutes, it additionally offers intriguing and extremely valuable insight into charitable and disciplinary activities of the meeting as it tried to maintain its identity, and, in many ways, to survive in a culture often hostile to it. The minutes preserve the meeting's decisions to deal with members who had strayed from the Quaker norm, for example, by marrying "out of unity," behaving reprehensibly (i.e., drinking, swearing, dancing, brawling, etc.), responding to muster call, or not attending meeting for some time. The minutes also detail the relocations of Quakers to and from other meetings, as Menallen had to receive, grant, and act upon certificates of removal.

Many of these abstracts make at least this reader regret that space and cost prevented the author from reprinting the minutes in their entirety. Under the family name "Tudor" (p. 136), for example, such entries as the following tease one to want to read more: "John, . . . compl[ained] of: slaveholding; fighting"; "Lewis, . . . compl[ained] of: marching with Oddfellows."

Occasionally, a complete entry is reprinted, justifying our curiosity about the other abbreviated records. Space permits only one quotation:

COMER, Richard, 5-12-1788, . . . "attending Musters, charged with being guilty of fornication, used no endeavour to clear himself of the charge, and when he was spoke to in these accounts discharged friends on pain of death from coming to treat with him any further on that occasion.

(p. 45)

The two books are available at the Society for the following prices: 100 Years at Warrington, $22.00, plus $1.32 for state tax; Menallen Minutes, $22.50, plus $1.35 tax.

— James P. Myers, Jr.

CHRIST (EPISCOPAL) CHURCH, HUNTINGTON TOWNSHIP

Records associated with the early Episcopal, or Anglican as it was then popularly known, church in what is now upper Adams county are also becoming more readily available. Recently found in the collections of the York County Historical Society is the vestry book of Christ's (or Christ) Church, Huntington township. The volume was begun in 1760 with the appointment of the Rev. Mr. William Thomson as the second rector in the succession of that church's ministers (what remains of his predecessor's vestry book—that of the Rev. Thomas Barton—is to be found in the archives of St. James Episcopal Church, Lancaster).

Among the other important and obvious reasons that even this incomplete vestry record is useful is the clue it provides in helping us determine the identity of a church which was the subject of a c. 1860 sketch. Although the building in the drawing is identified as Christ Church, Huntington, the further designation that it is the "first log church" of that name is incorrect.

We know from early letters written by both clergy and members of the Anglican community that the original log structure was constructed around 1745. In a letter of 16 October 1746, the Episcopal missionary for Lancaster, the Rev. Richard Locke described his activities among the Anglicans who lived "over" Susquehanna in the present Huntington and Tyrone townships. Observing that those claiming association with the Church of England numbered 100-150 persons, he recorded that they had acquired some 180 acres of land for a glebe and erected "a Log House church."

An itinerant missionary for the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts (usually abbreviated to "S.P.G."), Locke was transferred in 1740 to a congregation in Virginia; he was succeeded by the Rev. George Craig. The congregation in Huntington, however, requested that the S.P.G. provide them with their own resident clergyman. In their petition of 3 October 1748, "the Inhabitants of the townships of Huntington and Tyrone, commonly called Conninga [i.e., Conewago]" pointed out that they had acquired "another tract upon the banks of the Susquehanna about twenty miles" distant which was added to the earlier glebe holdings. They also provided some particulars for their log church: it measured "thirty feet long and twenty wide."

It was to this log structure that the Rev. Mr. Thomas Barton, an Anglo-Irishman from co. Monaghan, came in 1755 as the first Church-of-England minister to reside west of the Susquehanna—his residence or "small plantation" was situated in Reading township on what is now, according to the research of Arthur Weaner, the Fred and Gerald Ebersole farms east of Lake Meade and south of Mud Run.

THIS PARISH WAS FOUNDED IN 1794 AT HARTFORD BY THE REV. JESSE L. LEE TO WHOM THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHES IN CARROLL AND TOWN ALSO OWE "THEIR" FIDELITY

1985

Area Briefs

Episcopalian pilgrimage Sept. 15

YORK SPRINGS — The annual pilgrimage of local Episcopalians to Christ Church, York Springs, will be held Sept. 15.

A service of sung Evensong will be held at 4 p.m.; the preacher will be the Rev. Peter Mackey of St. Andrew's, York.

Music, under the direction of Mrs. Josephine Bailey Freund, will be provided by the choir of St. John's, Carlisle.

Arrangements will be in charge of Prince of Peace, Gettysburg.

Also participating will be the congregations of St. John's, York, and All Saints, Hanover.

The congregation of Christ Church began its existence in 1748. The first minister was sent from England by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts and was vicar of the work in that community and also held services in York and Carlisle.

The present building at York Springs dates to 1834.

Sharon R. Duttera
These Times Editor

Mr. and Mrs. Brent L. Crider

and Brent L. Crider
riage July 21 at the h of the Brethren,
the Rev. Floyd
g the ceremony.

daughter of Glenn springs, and the late a 1978 graduate of s High School and a
Hanover Practical

The bride is em-tysburg Hospital.
son of Mr. and Mrs.
Waynesboro. He is a Waynesboro High

ushers were Garnet Cook, Waynesboro, friend of the groom, and Griff
Glover, Chambersburg, friend of the groom.

The organist was Judy Pohlhaus. A reception was held at the Greenmount fire hall.

The couple spent a one-week honeymoon in Florida and the Bahamas.
They reside at 1597 Knoxlyn Road,
Gettysburg.

Bad Pyrmont

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Bad Pyrmont is a city in the district of Hameln-Pyrmont, in Lower Saxony (Niedersachsen), Germany, with a population of 22,000 (2003). It is located on the River Emmer, about 10 km west of the Weser, and a popular spa resort that gained its reputation as a fashionable place for princely vacations in the 17th and 18th centuries. Its large park is among the most spectacular in Germany, with a renowned outdoor palm garden. The baroque castle (1706–10) is part of an impressive complex of fortifications from the 16th century. The castle now houses the Museum of Municipal and Spa History. Unique in Europe is the vapor cave, where therapeutic carbon dioxide vapors emerge from the earth. The town is also the center of the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) in Germany. Bad Pyrmont's mineralwasser, popular throughout northern Germany, is bottled in Bad Pyrmont.

Contents

- 1 History
- 2 Facilities
 - 2.1 Country Clubs
 - 2.2 Hospitals
- 3 People
 - 3.1 Famous citizens
 - 3.2 Famous visitors
- 4 Gallery
- 5 See also
- 6 References
- 7 External links
 - 7.1 Multimedia

History

Formerly called Pyrmont, it was the seat of a small county during much of the Middle Ages. The county gained its independence, from the county of Schwalenberg, in 1194. Independence was maintained until the extinction of the comital line in 1494, when the county was inherited by the county of Spiegelberg. In 1557, the county was inherited by Lippe, then by the county of Gleichen in 1583.

In 1625 the county became part of the much larger county of Waldeck through inheritance. In 1668, the Reichskammergericht ruled against the Bishopric of Paderborn's claims that Pyrmont had been collateral in a loan, confirming the Count of Waldeck's

Bad Pyrmont

Train station

Location of the town of Bad Pyrmont within Hameln-Pyrmont district

Coordinates 51°59′12″N 9°15′49″E

Administration

Country Germany

- Otumfou Nana Opoku Ware II, King of Asante/Ghana
- Prince Paul of Württemberg
- Samuel Hahnemann, founder of homoeopathy
- Thomas Dehler, Federal Minister, Vice-president of the Federal Assembly
- William I, German Emperor
- William IV of the United Kingdom and Hanover

Gallery

The promenade between the baths and Pyrmont, 1780

Pyrmont Castle, 1900

Pyrmont baths, 1900

Pyrmont Castle, 2007

See also

- Hannover–Braunschweig–Göttingen–Wolfsburg Metropolitan Region

References

- ↑ "Bevölkerungsfortschreibung" (<http://www1.nls.niedersachsen.de/statistik/html/parametereingabe.asp?DT=K1000014&CM=Bev%F6lkerungsfortschreibung>) (in German). Landesbetrieb für Statistik und Kommunikationstechnologie Niedersachsen. 31 December 2009. <http://www1.nls.niedersachsen.de/statistik/html/parametereingabe.asp?DT=K1000014&CM=Bev%F6lkerungsfortschreibung>.

Famous visitors

- Joined Prussian province of Hanover	1921
---------------------------------------	------

- Adalbert von Chamisso, poet
- Adolph Freiherr Knigge, author
- Albert Lortzing, composer
- August Friedrich von Kotzebue, dramatist
- August and Ernst Horneffer, philosophers
- Benjamin Franklin, statesman and polymath
- Charles II, Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Strelitz and his brother Ernst
- Charles Augustus, Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach, friend of Herder and Goethe
- Charles Frederick, Grand Duke of Baden
- Christian Graf von Haugwitz, Prussian Secretary of State
- Christian Wilhelm von Dohm, Statesman and Minister
- Christian and Friedrich Stolberg, poet-brothers
- Christoph Friedrich Nicolai, author
- Christoph Friedrich Wedekind, poet
- Christoph Wilhelm Hufeland, physician
- Eugen Diederichs, publisher
- Felix von Luckner, lieutenant commander
- Ferdinand Duke of Braunschweig (Brunswick)
- Prince Frederick, Duke of York and Albany, Prince-Bishop of Osnabrück
- Frederick II of Prussia, also known as Frederick the Great
- Friedrich Bogislav von Tauentzien, Prussian General of the wars of liberation (Napoleon)
- Friedrich Gottlieb Klopstock, poet
- Friedrich Graf Kleist von Nollendorf, Prussian General Field Marshal
- Friedrich Heinrich Himmel, composer
- Frederick III, German Emperor
- Friedrich Justin Bertuch, author
- Frederick William II of Prussia
- Friedrich von Matthisson, lyrical poet
- Fritz Muliar, actor
- Gebhard Leberecht von Blücher, Prince of Wahlstadt, General Field Marshal
- Georg Philipp Telemann, composer
- Gottfried August Bürger, lyric poet and poet of ballads
- Gotthold Ephraim Lessing, poet
- Gustav IV Adolf of Sweden
- Gustav Friedrich Wilhelm Großmann, theater-director
- Gustav Stresemann, Chancellor of the Reich
- Heinrich Friedrich, Margrave of Brandenburg-Schwedt
- Heinrich Friedrich Karl vom und zum Stein, Prussian statesman
- Heinrich Lachmann, physician
- Heinrich von Stephan, General-Postmaster
- Jens Baggesen, Danish and German poet
- Joachim Heinrich Campe, educationalist, author, publisher
- Johann Gottfried Herder, poet
- Johann Heinrich Tischbein, painter at the court of Cassel
- Johann Heinrich Voß, poet, translator of Homer
- Johann Heinrich Wilhelm Tischbein, painter ("Goethe in the Campagna")
- Johann Rudolf von Bischoffswerder, Prussian Secretary
- Johann Stephan Pütter
- Johann Wolfgang von Goethe
- Charles Augustus, Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar-Eisenach, Goethes' patron
- Karl August von Hardenberg, Prussian statesman and Prime Minister
- Karl August Tittmann
- Karl Christian Friedrich Krause, philosopher
- Karl Devrient, famous actor of the 18th century, nephew of Ludwig Devrient
- Karl Philipp Moritz, author, poet
- Leopold II, Prince of Lippe
- Louis Spohr, composer
- Ludwig Keller, author
- Matthias Claudius, poet

External links

- Official website (<http://www.bad-pyrmont.de/>)
- German Tourism website (http://www.cometogermany.com/ENU/nature_active_recreation/health_resorts_spas_tlkur-id1025-fstadt_sight.htm/)

Multimedia

- CBC Radio reports on surrender of the city April 22, 1945 (http://archives.cbc.ca/war_conflict/second_world_war/topics/1669-11484/)

Retrieved from "http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bad_Pyrmont"

Categories: Towns in Lower Saxony | Former principalities | Former countries in Europe | States of the Holy Roman Empire | States and territories established in 1194 | States and territories disestablished in 1918 | Spa towns in Germany | 1494 disestablishments | States and territories established in 1805 | 1812 disestablishments | 1849 disestablishments

- This page was last modified on 8 April 2011 at 16:05.
 - Text is available under the Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike License; additional terms may apply. See Terms of Use for details.
- Wikipedia® is a registered trademark of the Wikimedia Foundation, Inc., a non-profit organization.

Hi,  Roena20 Sign Out Messages \(11\) My Account

Home Family Trees Search Collaborate Learning Center DNA Publish Shop Hire an Expert

Smith/Fickel Family Tree Return to family tree | Tree pages Owner:  caryl baker1951 find a person

Gabriel Fickel

Birth 1680 in Bad Pyrmont, Hameln-Pyrmont, Niedersachsen, GermanyDeath in Bad Pyrmont, Hameln-Pyrmont, Niedersachsen, Germany

View his family tree View family members More options

Overview Facts and Sources Media Gallery Comments Member Connect

Media Gallery

No photos, stories, audio or video have been added yet.

Timeline \(View details \)

1680

Birth

Bad Pyrmont, Hameln-Pyrmont, Niedersachsen, Germany

Death

Bad Pyrmont, Hameln-Pyrmont, Niedersachsen, Germany

Comments

No comments have been added yet.

Add a comment

Family Members

Parents

No Father

No Mother

Show siblings

Spouse & Children

No Spouse

Michael Fickel
1709 – 1770

Source Information

Ancestry Family Tree

This citation provides the source information for the data on this page.

Web Links

These records may also be relevant to Mathias Slaymaker:

Mathias Slaymaker

U.S. and International Marriage Records, 1560-1900

Mattheis Schleiermacher

Millennium File

Anna Slaymaker

Family Data Collection - Births

Anna Barbara Slaymaker

U.S. and International Marriage Records, 1560-1900

Mary Fickle

Family Data Collection - Births

Westerman and Darling - Registrar of the Rev. Thomas Barton.

This Blue Book Registrar is in Christ Church, York Springs, PA

GABRIEL FICKLE

The first information found about Gabriel was in the year 1761 on the 5th day of July. It was on this day that he, his wife and his daughter Margaret were baptized in Christ Church Episcopal, Huntington Township, York County, PA. This is now York Springs, Adams County, PA. He is found on the tax lists of Huntington Twp. from 1772 thru 1775.

Then came the war with England and he served as a Pvt. in Capt. Thompson's Co., 5th Battalion on the Roll Nov. 1776, York County Associates.

In 1783 Gabriel was again listed on the taxables, Huntington Twp. with a household of ten inhabitants.

In 1784 and in 1785 he was elected Vestryman of Christ Church Episcopal. and is listed on the tax lists of 1788 and 1789.

The census of 1790 lists the household as having one male over sixteen, two males under sixteen and five females.

No record of Gabriel is found in PA after the 1790 census. He no longer appears on the tax rolls of York County. He did however sign the release mentioned in in regard to his fathers estate and recorded 22 Dec. 1792 WR 11 pg 260-261 Frederick Co., MD.

Vestryman and Baptism - Register of the Rev. Thomas Barton.

This Blue Boune Register is in Christ Church, York Springs, PA

Ancestry.com MyFamily.com FamilyHistory.com
ABOUT US

policies
user agreement
ancestry.com

MESSAGE BOARDS

surname
country/state
topics

WORLD TREE

search
submit

SOCIETY HALL

find a society
add your society
calendar of events

ONLINE HELP

site map
customer support

Search U.S. Federal Census images from 1790 to 1920!

Name Search Ancestry.comFind a message board:

Go

☐ Use SoundexSearch the messages:

Go

or browse our message board categories, topics , country/state or surnames: A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z

The Fickle Surname Message Board

Reply | Message List | Previous | Parent

Message #70 Sunday, October 08, 2000

Subject: Gabriel Fickle

Posted by: Wilma Elbeck

Message: Roena, Thanks so much for your reply. My street address is 359 Capetown Dr., Alameda, CA 94502 & my phone# is 510-523-2878. Let me know the cost of the copies & postage & I'll reimburse you. Did you know that Michael Fickel's bithplace is listed as Richen Hanzen, Palatinate, Germany? I got this from Ancestry.com. & it's the 1st reference to his birthplace anyone in the VAST Fickel descendency has made. Thanks again. Wilma

Replies:

Find Your Ancestors NOW!

Over 600 Million Names

Help?

		Any v	Search
First Name	Last Name	Locality	Advanced
Ancestry World Tree	Social Security Death Index	Census Records	Periodicals & Newspapers
			Military Records

Copyright ©1998-2000, MyFamily.com Inc. and its subsidiaries.

this is spacer text used to space the page to the proper width for your browser. this is spacer text used to space the page to the proper width for your browser. this is spacer text used to space the page

Husband: Gabriel Fickel

Born: abt 1786 in:
Married: in:
Died: in:
Father: Michael Fickel
Mother: Margaret Slaymaker
Other Spouses:

Wife: Mary Moore have a note that last name is Moore

Born: ~~1761~~ 1761 in: York Springs check this - baptized as an adult
Died: in:
Father:
Mother:
Other Spouses:

CHILDREN

1
F Name: Margaret Fickel
Born: in:
Married: in:
Died: in:
Spouse:

M 2
Name:
Born: in:
Married: in:
Died: in:
Spouse:

M 3
Name:
Born: in:
Married: in:
Died: in:
Spouse:

F 4
Name:
Born: in:
Married: in:
Died: in:
Spouse:

F 5
Name:
Born: in:
Married: in:
Died: in:
Spouse:

F 6
Name:
Born: in:
Married: in:
Died: in:
Spouse:

✓ 7
Name:
Born: in:
Married: in:
Died: in:
Spouse:

✓ 8
Name:
Born: in:
Married: in:
Died: in:
Spouse:

Source:
Born:
in:
Source:
Died:
in:
Source:
Relationship with Father:	Michael Fickel - Natural
Relationship with Mother:	Margaret Slaymaker - Natural
Reference number:

Address and Phone(s)
Street 1:
Street 2:
City:
State or province:
Zip or postal code:
Country:
Phone(s):

Medical

Height:

Weight:

Cause of death:

Source:

Medical Information:

Source:

Baptism:	July 05, 1761 Christ Church, Episcopal, York Springs, PA
Source:
Census:	1790 1 male Over 16, 2 under and 5 females
Source:
Elected 1:	1784 Vestryman, Christ Church, Episcopal, York Springs, PA
Source 1:
Elected 2:	1785 Vestryman, Christ Church, Episcopal, York Springs, PA
Source 2:
Military service:	1776 Pvt. in Capt. James Thompson's Co. 5th Battalion. On Roll Nov. 1776, York Co. Associates
Source:
Probate:	December 22, 1792 Signed a release regarding his father Michael's estate, WR 11, pg. 260, Frederick Co., MD
Source:
Tax list 1:	Bet. 1772 - 1775 (now) York Springs, Adams Co., PA
Source 1:
Tax list 2:	1783 Huntington Twp. Taxes , 10 Inhabitants
Source 2:
Tax list 3:	1788 Same
Source 3:
Tax list 4:	1789 Same
Source 4:

Land
Record showing sale of property in York Co.

Wilma -

When I typed this information, Abstracts of Wythe, Co., VA I had not found that Mary Fickle's first husband was Samuel Robinett and that they had lived in this same area as Gabriel and a large Robinett clan. Samuel and Mary went to VA. and by the time Mary's mother Margaret (Slaymaker) Fickle made her will in 1795, Samuel had died and Mary was married to Thomas Dunn. I was aware of this and when I found the abstracts of Wythe Co. VA and saw Mary Dunn along with Matthias, Matthias, Jr. and Absalom, I had an idea that she was their sister. No date as to when I typed this but probably around 1985.

I continue searching for a will for Gabriel.

For the names of his other children

A land record of when he may have sold land in York Springs area and perhaps joined children in VA.

Did he have a son Gabriel?

Is the Gabriel found in the 1810 census of Monongalia, VA, his son?

My records show that: Matthias did not have a son Gabriel.

Jonathan did not have a son Gabriel

Joseph did not have a son Gabriel

Benjamin did not have a son Gabriel

Daniel did not have a son Gabriel (if this Daniel is correct)

Isaac ?

Isaac - There is an Isaac Fickle who served in the Revolution from Talbott County, MD.

1781 Maryland Archives xviii. Muster Rolls and oather records of Service of Maryland aTrops 1775 - 1781, Pg. 404. Alphabetical list of discharged soldiers of two Battallions of Militia raised to serve in the Continental Army in the year 1781.

Isaac Fickle is on this list. (National Archives 2nd floor reading room)

There was an Isaac Fickle, Jr. that was apprenticed to a Taylor to learn the trade by his mother by the name Hazzlett. A few years ago I stopped in Fickle, IN and searched in some cemeteries. I found a Fickle stones and beside it was a Hazlett. Sorry I can't put my hands on this information at the moment. I sort of wondered if Isaac, Sr. died young, Isaac, Jr. apprenticed out and his mother married a Hazlett. Well, just supposition but thought it might provide someone with a lead.

Roena

10/11/2000

ABSTRACTS OF WYTHE COUNTY VA DEED BOOK 2

(201) Pg 321 Daniel and Mary Goodwin of Botetourt Co. VA, to Randolph Fewgate. 300 acres on north side of the New River adjacent to John Grayson, Jr., Jeremiah Patrick, Mrs. Dunn's Inclosure (formerly Hugh Patricks). { 200. Wit: Samuel Goodwin, William Ross.

(335) Pg 527 (1799) Thomas Smythe of Montgomery County VA to James Dover (Devour) of Wythe. 124 acres on Walkers Creek. { 100. Wit: James Evans, Absalom Fickle, John Fanin, Robert Evans.

(336) Pg 529 (1799) Thomas Smythe of Montgomery County, VA to James Evans. { 100. 30 acres on Walkers Creed adjacent to James Devers, Wit: James Dever, John Fanin, Robert Evans, Absalom Fickle.

1800 TAXLIST OF WYTHE CO. VA, LIST A, APR. 22, 1800

Matthias Fickle - 2 white males over sixteen - 3 horses

Matthias Fickle, Jr. - 1 white male over sixteen - 3 horses

Mary Dunn - One white male over sixteen - 1 slave - 18 horses

There Fickle, late There Rader (relict of William Rader, dec'd) now wife of Absalom Fickle. Gasper Rader and Adam Helvey, securities for estate of William Rader. (1802)

Matthias Fickle
Matthias Fickle, Jr.
Absalom Fickle
There (?) Rader, Fickle w/o Absalom Fickle

Mary Dunn - possibly Mary (Fickle) Dunn, sister of Matthias Fickle, Sr.

An article in the Adams County Historical Society publication shows sketch of the second log church which would have been built during the time when Gabriel was vestryman. Do you have this article? If not I will send it by mail. What about the document of baptism and the vestryman appointment?

Is the Gabriel Fickle found in the 1810 Census Montgomery Co. VA, 1 male 16 - 26 and 1 female 16 - 26 with 1 female 0 - 7 the same Gabriel as in the 1820 Census of Wythe Co. VA 211 acres of land, 1 male 26 - 45 and 1 female 16 - 45 with 1 female under 10 and one 10 to 15? Is this a son of Gabriel, Sr.

Do you have the map that shows Fickle 1800 Road?

This is all I have and As Fickle

*To Wilma
Erick359 Capt town Dr.
Alameda, CA. 945021-510-523-2878Ro Bayes

From: Ro Bayes <robaes@cvn.net>
To: <support@familyhistory.com>
Sent: Friday, October 06, 2000 11:18 AM
Subject: Re: Fickle/Slaymakers

Wilma, This is my time line for Gabriel:

1761 - 5 July Gabriel, his wife Mary and daughter Margaret were baptized in Christ Church, Episcopal, York Springs/Petersburg. Huntington Twp. York County (now Adams Co.) PA. - Source: Register of the Rev. Thomas Barton

1772 thru 1775 Tax lists in Huntington Twp. York Co.

1776 - In Capt. James Thompson's 5th Battalion, York Co. Associates.

1780 - Census of PA, Sstate wide Index of PA Taxables.

1783 - Shows 10 inhabitants

1784 - Elected Vestryman of Christ Church Episcopal

1785 - same

1788 - Tax list

1789 - Tax list

1790 - Census shows 1 male over 16 2 males under 16; 5 females

1792 - In Dec. he signed a release related to his father Michael's estate.

I have not been able to find Gabriel on tax rolls after 1789.

An article in the Adams County Historical Society publication shows sketch of the second log church which would have been built during the time when Gabriel was vestryman. Do you have this article? If not I will send it. snail mail. What about the document of baptism and the vestryman appointment?

Is the Gabriel Fickle found in the 1810 Census Monongalia, VA, 1 male 16 - 26 and 1 female 16 - 26 with 1 female 0 - 1 the same Gabriel as in the 1820 Census of Wythe Co. VA 211 acres of land, 1 male 26 - 45 and 1 female 26 - 45 with 1 female under 10 and one 10 to 16? Is this a son of Gabriel, Sr.

Do you have the map that shows Fickle Hill Road?

This is all I have on Gabriel

10/6/2000

----- Original Message -----

From: <support@familyhistory.com>

To: <robaes@cvn.net>

Sent: Thursday, October 05, 2000 10:51 PM

Subject: Fickle/Slaymakers

> Please visit FamilyHistory.com to view a recent reply to your message:

> <http://www.familyhistory.com/rd.asp?id=2761204>

>

>

GABRIEL FICKLE

The first information found about Gabriel was in the year 1761 on the 5th day of July. It was on this day that he, his wife and his daughter Margaret were baptized in Christ Church Episcopal, Huntington Township, York County, PA. This is now York Springs, Adams County, PA. He is found on the tax lists of Huntington Twp. from 1772 thru 1775.

1780 - Census of PA State wide Index of PA taxables.
1783 -
Then came the war with England and he served as a Pvt. in Capt. James Thompson's Co., 5th Battalion on the Roll Nov. 1776, York County Associates.

1788 -
1789 -
In 1783 Gabriel was again listed on the taxables, Huntington Twp. with a household of ten inhabitants.

1792 -
In 1784 and in 1785 he was elected Vestryman of Christ Church Episcopal. and is listed on the tax lists of 1788 and 1789.

The census of 1790 lists the household as having one male over sixteen, two males under sixteen and five females.

No record of Gabriel is found in PA after the 1790 census. He no longer appears on the tax rolls of York County. He did however sign the release mentioned in in regard to his fathers estate and recorded 22 Dec. 1792 WR 11 pg 260-261 Frederick Co., MD.

Vestryman and Baptism - Register of the Rev. Thomas Barton.

This Blue Bound Register is in Christ Church, York Springs, PA

GABRIEL PICKLE

The first information found about Gabriel was in the year 1761 on the 5th day of July. It was on this day that he, his wife had his daughter Margaret were baptized in Christ Church Episcopal, Huntington Township, York County, PA. This is now York Springs, Adams County, PA. He is found on the tax lists of Huntington Twp. from 1772 thru 1775.

Then came the war with England and he served as a Pvt. in Capt. Thompson's Co., 5th Battalion on the Roll Nov. 1776, York County ^{James} Associates.

In 1783 Gabriel was again listed on the taxables, Huntington Twp. with a household of ten inhabitants. In 1784 and in 1785 he was elected Vestryman of Christ Church Episcopal, and is listed on the tax lists of 1788 and 1789.

The census of 1790 lists the household as having one male over sixteen, two males under sixteen and five females. No record of Gabriel is found in PA after the 1790 census. He no longer appears on the tax rolls of York County. He did however sign the release mentioned in regard to his fathers estate and recorded 22 Dec. 1792 WR II pg 260-261 Frederick Co., MD.

Vestryman and Baptism - Register of the Rev. Thomas Barton.
This Blue Bound Register is in Christ Church, York Springs, PA

GABRIEL FICKLE

- 1761 - 5 July, Gabriel, his wife Mary and dau Margaret were baptized
Christ Church Episcopal, York Springs/Petersburg, PA
- 1772 thru 1775 He was on the tax list in Huntington Twp. York/Adams
Co.
- 1776 - 1776 In Capt. James Thompson's 5th Battalion, York Co.
Associates.
- 1780 - Census of PA State wide Index of PA taxables.
- 1783 - shows 10 inhabitants.
- ¹
~~18~~74 - Elected Vestryman of Christ Church Episcopal
~~18~~75 - same
- 1788 - tax list
- 1789 - tax list
- 1792 - In Dec. he signed a release related to his father's (Michael Fickle) estate.

Present the Reverend John Campbell }
& John Collins } Rector

} Church
} Warden

I Archibald M'Grew, Leonard Hatton, Edward Marsden, John Watson, James Gallagher, Gabriel Fickle, Edward Hatton, Hugh M'Inag, William Ferguson, James Moorhead, John Wilson, & Braehen, & John M'Grew.

The Reverend John Campbell chose Leonard Hatton to his Church Warden - & John M'Grew - was chosen to Church Warden by the Congregation.

The following were chosen to be Vestrymen viz: - Archibald M'Grew, John Maxwell, James Maxwell, Stephen Foulke, Thomas Robinson, Robert Selap, Thomas Abbot, Alexander M'Grew, M'Inag, Edward Marsden, Gabriel Fickle, John Watson, Hatton, John Collins & William Galtby. The year to commence on the 1st of July.

At the same time an aspersion thrown upon the Character of John Hatton, late a Member of this Congregation, & now of Halifax in the State of Virginia was done away to the satisfaction of the said Congregation, & the complete vindication of the said John Hatton's Character. - Witness

John Campbell } Rector

} Church
} Warden

RO
FF
W
A Meeting of the English Protestant Episcopal Congregation at Christ Church in Huntington in consequence of public notice given by the Rev. John Campbell Pastor & Rector of said Church
Congregation, holden on this 27th Day of June 1785—

Present the Reverend John Campbell } Rector
& John Collins

} Church
Warden

I Archibald M'Grew, Leonard Halton, Edward Marsden, John Watson, James Gallagher, Gabriel Fickle, Edward Halton, Hugh M'Inag, William Ferguson, James Moorhead, John Wilson, &
Braehen, & John M'Grew—

The Reverend John Campbell chose Leonard Halton to his Church Warden— & John M'Grew— was chosen to Church Warden by the Congregation—

The following were chosen to be Vestrymen— viz:— Archibald

M'Grew, John Maxwell, James Maxwell, Asaph Foulk, Thomas
Abdineer, Robert Selap, Thomas Abbet, Alexander M'Grew, M'Inag, Edward Marsden, Gabriel Fickle, John Watson,
Halton, John Collins & William Gallagher.

The year to commence on the 6th of July

At the same time an aspersion thrown upon the Character of John Halton, late a Member of this Congregation, & now of Halifax in the State of Virginia was done away to the Satisfaction of the said Congregation, & the compleat vindication
the said John Halton's Character—

At the same time a settlement was made between the old
Episcopal Church Wardens, when it appeared a balance of £1-13-6 was due & paid to the present Wardens. —

At a Meeting of the Protestant Episcopal Congregation at Christ Church in Haddington, after due notice given,
the following Persons were chosen, viz. —

John Collins — } Church-Wardens —
John M. Greig — }

Wessymen as last year —

After settlement of the a/c^{ts} there was paid into the hands of the present Wardens £1-13-0 of the collection

At a Meeting of the Protestant Episcopal Congregation at Christ Church in Haddington after due notice given —

The Rev. John Campbell, Rector —

Leonard Hutton, W^m Godfrey, John Collins, James Maxwell, Allen Robinet, Robert Delap, John
Abraham Tiches, Griffith John, John Williamson

following Persons were chosen

the current year viz. from July 6th 1789 to July 6th 1790

W^m Godfrey — } Wardens
John Collins }

Dated August 3. 1789 —

Leonard Hutton } Vestrymen Men
John M. Greig }

at a settlement with James Collins

John Maxwell there remained in his hands

Allen Robinet

Richard M. Greig

Edward M. Greig

John Delap

A Meeting of the English Protestant Episcopal Congregation at Christ Church in Huntington in consequence of public Notice given by the Rev. John Campbell Pastor & Rector of said Church
Congregation, holden on this 27th Day of June 1785—

Present the Reverend John Campbell } Rector
& John Collins

} Church-
Warden

Archibald M'Grew, Leonard Hatton, Edward Marden, John Watson, James Gallagher, Gabriel Fickle, Edward Hatton, Hugh M'Inag, William Ferguson, James Moorhead, John Wilson,
Bracken, & John M'Grew—

The Reverend John Campbell chose Leonard Hatton— to his Church-Warden— & John M'Grew— was chosen to Church-Warden by the Congregation—

The following
Persons were chosen to be Vestrymen— viz:— Archibald
M'Grew, John Maxwell, James Maxwell, Stephen South, Thomas
Abbotson, Robert Delap, Thomas Abbot, Alexander M'Grew, M'Inag, Edward Marden, Gabriel Fickle, John Watson,
Hatton, John Collins & William Godding.
The year to commence on the 6th of July.

At the same time an aspersion thrown upon the Character of John Hatton, late a Member of this Congregation, & now of Hoffman in the State of Virginia was done away to the Satisfaction of the said Congregation, & the compleat vindication
the said John Hatton's Character—

Witness
John Campbell } Rector

} Church-
Warden

ROF
WE

Children Baptized in the Year 1761

Jan'y 15th John ~~Son~~ Son to John & Mary Pross.
 15th Sarah Daughter to John and Mary Pross.
 15th James Son to John and Mary Pross.
 15th Elizabeth Daughter to John & Mary Pross.
 15th George Son to John and Mary Pross.
 15th Susannah Daughter to Thomas.
 15th John Son to Rich: and Egleston.
 May 3rd Tho: Son to Tho: & Sarah Nash.
 3rd Nicholas Son to Nicholas and Hannah Bishop.
 3rd Catherine Daughter to Watson.
 July 5th Gabriel Fickle & Mary Fickle his Wife Adult.

July 5th Margaret Daughter to Gabriel & Mary Fickle.
 5th Hannah Daughter to Sharp.
 26th Mary Daughter to Fingy & Husband.
 27th Mary Daughter to Rich: and Jane Sadler.
 August 16th Ann Daughter to John and Mary Collins Jun.
 16th Sarah Daughter to John and Mary Collins Jun.
 16th Martha Daughter to Wm and Margaret M^{rs} G.
 Nov^r 4th Eleanor Daughter to John and Jane Hutton.
 8th Elizabeth Daughter to John and Hodge.
 Dec^r 6th Samuel Son to Wm and Linsay.

Children Baptized in the Year 1762

1762
 Feb'y 7th Esther Daughter to Arch: & Martha M^{rs} Graw.
 8th Esther Daughter to Cha: Gordon.
 14th John Son to Charleton & Mary Atkinson.
 14th Mary Daughter to Tho: & Rosannah Collins.
 24th John Son to Ja: and Eliz: Morehead.
 March 7th John Son to Robt: & Mary Scot.
 24th Martha Daughter to John & Eliz: Wackeren.
 April 12th Rebecca Daughter to Samson & Rebecca Archer.
 16th John Hacket bound to Tho: Wackeren.
 May 9th Mary Daughter to Joseph & Sarah Full.
 Ja: Son to Laughlin & Mary M^{rs} G.
 Eliz: Daughter to Robt: & Eliz: Fletcher.
 Wth Rich: Son to Rich: and Jane Chesnut.
 June 12th Isaac Son to Wm and Mary Sadler.
 Oct^r 24th Mary Daughter to Wm and Mary Bortor.
 15th Eliz: Daughter to Wm & Eleanor Nash.

R
FF

Children Baptized in the Year 1761

Jan'y 15th John ~~Son~~ Son to John & Mary Profs.
 15th Sarah Daughter to John and Mary Profs.
 15th James Son to John and Mary Profs.
 15th Elizabeth Daughter to John & Mary Profs.
 15th George Son to John and Mary Profs.
 15th Susannah Daughter to Thomas.
 15th John Son to Rich: and Egleston.
 May 3rd Tho: Son to Tho: & Sarah Nash.
 3rd Nicholas Son to Nicholas and Hannah Bishop.
 3rd Catherine Daughter to Watson.
 July 5th Gabriel Fickle & Mary Fickle his Wife Adult.

July 5th Margaret Daughter to Gabriel & Mary Fickle
 5th Hannah Daughter to Sharps.
 26th Mary Daughter to Virgy & Husband.
 27th Mary Daughter to Fich: and Jam: Sadler.
 August 16th Ann Daughter to John and Mary Collins Jun.
 16th Sarah Daughter to John and Mary Collins Jun.
 16th Martha Daughter to Wm and Margaret M^{rs} Yr.
 Nov: 1st Eleanor Daughter to John and Jane Hatton.
 8th Elizabeth Daughter to John and Hodge.
 Dec: 6th Samuel Son to Wm and Linsey.

Children Baptized in the Year 1762

1762
 Feb'y 7th Esther Daughter to Arch: & Martha M^{rs} Grew.
 8th Esther Daughter to Cha: Gordon.
 14th John Son to Charleston & Mary Atkinson.
 14th Mary Daughter to Tho: & Profannah Collins.
 24th John Son to Ja: and Eliz: Morehead.
 March 7th John Son to Robt: & Mary Scot.
 24th Martha Daughter to John & Eliz: Knacker.
 April 12th Rebecca Daughter to Samson & Rebecca Archer.
 16th John Hacket bound to Tho: Knacker.
 May 9th Mary Daughter to Joseph & Sarah Sull.
 Ja: Son to Laughlin & Mary M^{rs} Li Yea.
 Eliz: Daughter to Robt: & Eliz: Fletcher.
 Wth Rich: Son to Rich: and Jane Chesnut.
 June 12th Isaac Son to Wm and Mary Sadler.
 Oct: 24th Mary Daughter to Wm and Mary Crocker.
 1st 1st Eliz: Daughter to Daw: & Eleanor Nash.

At a meeting of the Congregation of Huntington after due notice given. Present The Rev. Mr. John Campbell Pastor.

August 9th 1784

Mr. John Collins, and Mr. William Godfrey were elected Church Wardens for the ensuing Year

Archibald McGraw, Leonard Skatton, John Maxwell, James Maxwell, Stephen Toulk, Thomas Robison, John McGraw, Robert Delap, Thomas Abbot, Alexander McGraw, James McGraw, Edward Marsden, Gabriel Tuttle, John Watson, Adam Simmon, Vestrymen

At a Meeting of the Vestry holden on Monday the 11th Day of October 1784 in the Church at Huntington, commonly called Christ's Church, agreeably to public Notice given, a Settlement was made between William Godfrey & John Collins on the one part, Wardens of the said Church, & the Congregation on the other part, when it appeared that a Balance is due from the said Wardens to the Incumbent of fifty one Pounds two Shillings & nine Pence. ~ Ordered at the same Time, with the consent of the Incumbent, that the above Sum of fifty one Pounds two Shillings & nine Pence be applied towards the Building of a Barn on the Site belonging to the said Church. ~ Archibald McGraw, Thomas Robison, & Leonard Skatton, were directed to contract for & superintend the building of the said Barn.

Attest. John Campbell. Minister

BAPTISMAL RECORDS OF THE UPPER BERMUDEAN "GROUND OAK" CHURCH

Johannes b. 1800, Witnesses: Philip Schlosser and Margaretha Jacob Peter of Peter Spengler and Barbara, b. June 1800, bapt. September 3, 1800, Witnesses: Conrad Cronster and Catharina Henrich of Henrich Hartmann and Elisabeth, b. March 8, 1800, bapt. September 18, 1800, Witnesses: Philip Grub
Salome of Henrich Brem and Elisabeth, b. June 17, 1801 (sic), bapt. September 18, 1800, Witnesses: Catharina Herzel
Anna Maria of Conrad Schmidt and wife, b. November 17, 1800, bapt. September 13, 1801, Witnesses: Anna Maria Schwartz

THE REGISTER OF CHRIST'S CHURCH (EPISCOPAL) YORK SPRINGS, PENNSYLVANIA
1760 - 1800

Edited by HENRY JAMES YOUNG (1939)

John of Richd. and Jane Chesnut, bapt. May 25, 1760
Mary of Richd. and Jane Chesnut, bapt. May 25, 1760
Jane of John and Margret Mitchel, bapt. May 25, 1760
Joseph of James Elder, bapt. June 8, 1760
Hannah of Dennis Briens, bapt. June 8, 1760
John of ----- McLeDAY, bapt. June 8, 1760
Mary of Wm. and Mary Young, bapt. June 15, 1760
Mary of James and Eli: Morehead, bapt. June 15, 1760
Wm. of Robt. and Sarah McGill, bapt. June 15, 1760
Edward of Lewis and Mary Hatton, bapt. August 22, 1760
Thomas of Richd. Eygleston, bapt. September 14, 1760
Eli: of Wm. and Sarah Amburn, bapt. October 26, 1760
Daniel of Chas. Gordon, bapt. October 26, 1760
John of John and Mary Ross, bapt. January 15, 1761
Sarah of John and Mary Ross, bapt. January 15, 1761
James of John and Mary Ross, bapt. January 15, 1761
Elisabeth of John and Mary Ross, bapt. January 15, 1761
George of John and Mary Ross, bapt. January 1761
Susanna of ----- Thomas, bapt. January 15, 1761
John of Richd. Eygleston, bapt. January 15, 1761
Thos. of Thos. and Sarah Nash, bapt. May 3, 1761
Nicholas of Nicholas and Hannah Bishop, bapt. May 3, 1761
Catherine of ----- Watson, bapt. May 3, 1761
Gabriel Fickle and Mary his wife, adults, bapt. July 5, 1761
Margret of Gabriel and Mary Fickle, July 5, 1761
Hannah of ----- Sharp, bapt. July 5, 1761
Mary of Kizey Husbands, bapt. July 26, 1761
Mary of Richd. Sadler Junr. and Jane, bapt. July 27, 1761
Ann of John Collins Junr. and Mary, bapt. August 16, 1761
Sarah of John Collins Junr. and Mary, bapt. August 16, 1761
Martha of Wm. and Margret McGrew, bapt. August 16, 1761
Eleanor of John and Jane Hatton, bapt. November 1, 1761
Elizabeth of John Hodge, bapt. November 8, 1761
Samuel of Wm. Linsey, bapt. December 6, 1761
Esther of Arch: and Martha McGrew, bapt. February 7, 1762
Esther of Chas. Gordon, bapt. February 8, 1762
John of Charleton and Mary Atkinson, bapt. February 14, 1762
Mary of Thos. and Rosannah Collins, bapt. February 14, 1762

THE REGISTER OF CHRIST'S CHURCH (EPISCOPAL) YORK SPRINGS

John of Jas. and Elez: Morehead, bapt. February 24, 1762
John of Robt. and Mary Scot, bapt. March 7, 1762
Martha of John and Elez: Bracken, bapt. March 21, 1762
Rebecca of Samson and Rebeca Archer, bapt. April 12, 1762
John Hackett (bound to Thos. Bracken), bapt. April 16, 1762
Mary of Joseph and Sarah Tull, bapt. May 9, 1762
Jas. of Laughlen and Mary McCleYea, bapt. May 9, 1762
Elez: of Robt. and Elez: Fletcher, bapt. May 11, 1762
Richd. of Richd. and Jane Chesnut, bapt. May 11, 1762
Isaac of Wm. and Mary Sadler, bapt. June 12, 1762
Mary of Wm. and Mary Proctor, bapt. October 24, 1762
Elez of Edwd. and Eleanor Nash, bapt. October 24, 1762
Jane of Chas. and Issabel McJannet, bapt. November 14, 1762
Margret of Robt. and Sarah McGill, bapt. November 14, 1762
Mary of John and Mary Moss, bapt. November 24, 1762
Hannah of James of Hannah Crouch, bapt. November 24, 1762
John of Henry and Sarah Giles, bapt. May 1, 1763
John of Richard and Jane Sadler, September 25, 1763
Isabella of Wm. and Margaret McGrew, bapt. October 4, 1763
Jane of Wm. and Mary Sadler, bapt. October 30, 1763
Samuel of Henry and Sarah Thorp, bapt. October 30, 1763

The Register has been very irregularly kept since the year 1763 (Note in the hand of The Reverend John Campbell, who made the entries that immediately follow)

John of John Collins, b. July 1, 1781, bapt. June 20, 1784
Allen of Allen and Rachel Robinet, b. November 21, 1787, bapt. March 27, 1788
James of Allen and Rachel Robinet, b. April 28, 1789, bapt. May 27, 1789
Thomas of Allen and Rachel Robinet, b. March 23, 1791, bapt. May 4, 1791
Ann of Allen and Rachel Robinet, b. February 23, 1793, bapt. April 14, 1793
Mary of Allen and Rachel Robinet, b. January 14, 1795, bapt. July 20, 1795
Rachel of Allen and Rachel Robinet, b. March 27, 1798, bapt. April 29, 1798
Rebecca Richardson of Edward Morehead (b. in Huntington Township, June 28, 1773 and Sarah (b. April 18, 1777), b. January 5, 1797; bapt. [not date]
Mary Taylor of Edward Morehead and Sarah [See above]; b. September 11, 1799, bapt. [no date given]

(No Entries appear in this Register from 1798 to 1823 -- C. Williams)

PARENTS: Gabriel Henry Fickle & Elizabeth Mead
b: 16 May 1736 Strasburg, PA d: 17 Feb 1853 b:

d 5 Jul 1761 York Springs, PA m: 13 Aug 1801 W. VA Monongalia

Joseph Fickle Nancy Tannehill
b: 1780 - 1860 1777 - 1859
4 Aug d 15 Oct 80 yrs d 18 Jul
Franklin, OH Hamilton, Franklin, OH

1. Altha b 7 Jun 1802 - 1877 26 Aug Edward Dennison
d: 1877 Perry Co, OH Danison
2. Jane b 6 Dec 1803 - 1865 3 Jun 1865 Charles Gordon
d: 1865 Washington, OH
3. Jonathan b 12 Oct VA 1805 - 1844 17 Aug Jane O' Hare
d: 1844 Falls, OH
4. Isaac b 2 Feb 1808 - 1883 7 Sep Catherine Eby
d: 1883
5. Alexander b 25 Jul VA 1810 - 1817 17 Aug
d: 1817 Perry Co, OH
6. Aaron b 5 Dec Perry Co 1812 - 1822 12 Aug
d: 1822 OH
7. William b Dec 5th 1815 - 1894 10 Adair Co
d: 1894 MO
8. James b 18 Jan 1818 - 1886 7 Feb Olathe KS
d: 1886 Melvina Woolard
9. Elizabeth 1818 - 1819 d 17 Apr.
10. Mary Ann b: 22 Feb 1820 - 1908 25 Sep William Brown
d: 1908 1898
11. George W. b 26 Sep 1822 - 1905 28 Nov Hannah Harding
Washington Fickle m: 15 Apr 1848 b: Jun 1826
Fultonham Perry Co, OH
Muskogum Co, OH d:

← BACK

Fickle Family Bible

Posted 30 Apr 2011 by cindysecrest1

Fickle Family

Joseph G. Fickle, born Aug. 4, 1780 died Oct. 15, 1860 married about 1801 Nancy Tannehill born March 12, 1777 died July 18, 1859.

Their children were:

Aletha, born June 7, 1802 married Edward Danison Dec. 18, 1823.

Jane, born Dec. 5, 1803 married Charles Gordon Dec. 5, 1822.

Jonathan, born Oct. 12, 1805 died Aug. 17, 1844 married Jane O'Hare Apr. 12, 1827.

Isaac, born Feb. 2, 1808 married first, Catherine Eby, Sept. 9, 1828. Married second, Elizabeth Jones, April 7, 1833

Alexander born July 25, 1810 died Aug. 17, 1817.

Aaron, born Dec. 5, 1812 died Aug. 12, 1822.

William, born Sept. 9, 1815 married first Susannah Ward Nov. 2, 1838, married second, Mary Ann Pullen April 8, 1841.

James, born Jan. 18, married Malvina Woolard July 2, 1844.

Elizabeth, born Jan. 18, 1818, died April 7, 1819.

Mary Ann born Feb. 25, 1820 died Sept. 25, 1898 married William Brown Sept. 8, 1842.

George, born Sept. 26, 1822 married Hannah Harding April 18, 1846.

Note:

This family lived for a while in Logan, Hocking County, Ohio

Hocking County adjoins Perry County.

Source: Alexander Scott and his descendants: compiled 1939: additional records,

DETAILS

^

Gabriel Finkle

Ro Bayes

From: "Kana" <kana@myfamilyinc.com>
To: "Ro Bayes" <robaes@cvn.net>
Sent: Friday, October 06, 2000 12:09 PM
Subject: Re: Fickle/Slaymakers

Dear Ro Bayes,

Please note that you have sent an e-mail to the Ancestry.com Customer Solutions team, not to the individuals you intended. Please make sure your e-mail is addressed appropriately.

To reply to a message on the Family History Message Board please do the following:

1. Go to www.familyhistory.com
2. Select the "Message Board" you would like to view
3. After selecting the "Message Board" choose a message you would like to view.
4. To reply to the message click on the "Reply" link above the message.
5. Fill in your name, e-mail address, subject, and the message.
6. After writing the message and checking for accuracy press the "Submit" button.
7. The message will be added to the "Message Board."

If there is anything else we can assist you with, please let us know.

Marta
 Customer Solutions
 Ancestry.com
 e-mail: support@ancestry-inc.com
 "Connecting and Strengthening Families through the World Wide Web"

Get Free Family History tips, news and updates! Sign up for the Ancestry Daily News at www.ancestry.com.

Original message follows:

Wilma, This is my time line for Gabriel:

1761 - 5 July Gabriel, his wife Mary and daughter Margaret were baptized in Christ Church, Episcopal, York Springs/Petersburg. Huntington Twp. York County (now Adams Co.) PA. - Source: Register of the Rev. Thomas Barton

1772 thru 1775 Tax lists in Huntington Twp. York Co.

1776 - In Capt. James Thompson's 5th Battalion, York Co. Associates.

1780 - Census of PA, Sstate wide Index of PA Taxables.

1783 - Shows 10 inhabitants

1784 - Elected Vestryman of Christ Church Episcopal

1785 - same

Joseph Gabriel Fickle

BIRTH 4 AUG 1780 • Strasburg, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, United States

DEATH 15 OCT 1860 • New Lexington, Perry, Ohio, United States

Facts

Age 0 — Birth

4 Aug 1780 • Strasburg, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, United States

Age 21 — Marriage

13 AUG 1801 • Monongalia County, West Virginia, United States

Nancy Tannehill
(1777–1859)

Age 33 — Death of Mother Mary Moore (1740–1813)

1813 • Pennsylvania, USA

Age 39 — Birth of Daughter Mary Ann Fickle Brown (1820–1898)

22 Feb 1820 • Perry, Ohio, United States

Age 40 — Residence

1820 • Madison, Perry, Ohio, United States

Family

Parents

Gabriel Henry Fickel
Fickle

1736–1780

Mary Moore
1740–1813

Spouse & Children

Nancy Tannehill
1777–1859

Mary Ann Fickle
Brown

1820–1898

George Fickel - Civil War

1824–1922

Sources

Ancestry Sources

Joseph Gabriel Fickle

BIRTH 4 AUG 1780 • Strasburg, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, United States
 DEATH 12 OCT 1860 • New Lexington, Perry, Ohio, United States

Facts

Age 0 — Birth

4 Aug 1780 • Strasburg, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, United States

Age 21 — Marriage

13 AUG 1801 • Monongalia County, West
 Virginia, United States

 Nancy Tannehill
 (1777-1859)

Age 33 — Death of Mother Mary Moore (1740-1813)

1813 • Pennsylvania, USA

Age 39 — Birth of Daughter Mary Ann Fickle Brown (1820-1898)

22 Feb 1820 • Perry, Ohio, United States

Age 40 — Residence

1820 • Madison, Perry, Ohio, United States

Family

Parents

 Gabriel Henry Fickle
 1736-1780

 Mary Moore
 1740-1813

Spouse & Children

 Nancy Tannehill
 1777-1859

 Mary Ann Fickle
 Brown
 1820-1898

 George Fickle - Civil War
 1824-1822

Sources

Ancestry Sources

Age 44 — Birth of Son George Fickel - Civil War (1824–1922)

26 Sep 1824 • Madison, Perry, Ohio, United States

Age 50 — Residence

1830 • Madison, Perry, Ohio, USA

Age 60 — Residence

1840 • Madison, Perry, Ohio, USA

Age 70 — Residence

1850 • Madison, Perry, Ohio, USA

Age 78 — Death of Wife Nancy Tannehill (1777–1859)

18 JUL 1859 • Perry, Ohio, United States

Residence

1860 • Madison, Perry, Ohio, USA

Residence Post Office: Segoy

Age 80 — Death

15 Oct 1860 • New Lexington, Perry, Ohio, United States

1820 United States Federal Census

1830 United States Federal Census

1840 United States Federal Census

1850 United States Federal Census

1860 United States Federal Census

Ancestry Family Trees

Ohio, Homestead and Cash Entry Patents, Pre-1908

U.S. and International Marriage Records, 1560-1900

U.S. General Land Office Records, 1776-2015

- 1820 United States Federal Census
- 1830 United States Federal Census
- 1840 United States Federal Census
- 1850 United States Federal Census
- 1860 United States Federal Census
- Ancestry Family Trees
- Ohio, Homestead and Cash Entry Patents, Pre-1908
- U.S. and International Marriage Records, 1560-1900
- U.S. General Land Office Records, 1776-2015

- Age 44 — Birth of Son George Fickel - Civil War (1824-1923)
- 26 Sep 1824 - Madison, Perry, Ohio, United States
- Age 50 — Residence
- 1830 - Madison, Perry, Ohio, USA
- Age 60 — Residence
- 1840 - Madison, Perry, Ohio, USA
- Age 70 — Residence
- 1850 - Madison, Perry, Ohio, USA
- Age 78 — Death of Wife Nancy Tannehill (1777-1859)
- 18 Jul 1859 - Perry, Ohio, United States
- Residence
- 1860 - Madison, Perry, Ohio, USA
- Residence Post Office: Sego
- Age 80 — Death
- 15 Oct 1860 - New Lexington, Perry, Ohio, United States